

PATTON BRIEFS

The Telephone number at the Patton Borough office has been changed to 3141. Formerly it was 2881. Folks who have business with the office will please note this in their phone books, and avoid confusion.

Everything is in readiness for the annual picnic to be held under the sponsorship of the members of the Catholic church congregation at St. Lawrence on Saturday of this week, August 5th. No stone has been left unturned by the committee in charge to make this season's affair bigger and better than ever. Chicken and veal meals will be served, and there will be games and amusements, and a good time for all. Dancing will be a feature. The picnic also serves as a reunion for folks from the north county section, and your attendance may bring you the pleasure of a renewed acquaintanceship. Plan to visit the picnic. Go up and enjoy a good meal.

Patton is being well represented at the annual convention of the Cambria County Volunteer Firemen's Association being held at Barnesboro Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The parade and tournament will take place on Thursday afternoon and over 60 organizations have filed intentions of participation.

When a Pittsburgh motorist dozed early Monday morning at the curve at the Carrolltown Fair Grounds his car crashed into a parked truck and landed two persons in the Spangler hospital. William J. Holmes, 28, operator of the car, told police he fell asleep at the wheel. Holmes suffered lacerations of the right thigh, chest and face. Gomer H. Gillespie, 24, riding with Holmes, suffered lacerations of the left leg and elbow. Both car and truck were damaged extensively.

The third annual basket picnic of Patton Aerie, No. 1244, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be held on Sunday in the St. Bonifacius Grove. The picnic each year grows in popularity, and is intended for members, and their families. Free treats for those attending is a feature. Special sport events will be held in the afternoon. Prizes will be given. Muehball, horse-shoe pitching, and other games have been arranged. An air show, over the picnic ground and a parachute jump will be an attraction. Three planes will be available for passengers. A free ride will be given a lucky number holder. Fred Soisson, of Hastings, nationally known shooting expert, will give an exhibition of plain and fancy shooting with many new and exciting features. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. A forty piece band will be on hand all day. There will be dancing in the afternoon as well as a floor show. The aerie will furnish free transportation to the grounds for those who have no means of getting there. Bus will leave the aerie home at 10:30 a. m. and make four round trips; beginning at 7:00 p. m. four round return trips will be made. L. C. Smale is chairman of the steering committee for the picnic.

The local F. O. E. will hold a class initiation on August 27th observing their forty-first anniversary. Entertainment and lunch will follow.

The Ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary, Walter McCoy Post, of Patton, will hold a food sale in the first floor store room of the American Legion Home on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week and earnestly solicit your patronage. Candy, Pastries, Baked goods, etc., etc., will be offered for sale. Buy your supply for Sunday.

The following motored recently to Kennyswood Park where they spent the day: William, Rita and Regina Hite, Hayden, Orthella and Luella Bender, Walter, Clarence and Stella Farabaugh, Evelyn Raymond, Robert Hoover, Dennis Farabaugh and Thomas Leitzi.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young are attending the New York World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Farabaugh and family and Dr. Bauch of Greensburg, spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bender in East Carroll township.

Mrs. Josephine Bender and daughter, Rita, left last Thursday for New Jersey to attend the wedding of a relative.

John Rowland, who has been seriously ill at the home of his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nehrig, is somewhat improved.

Plans are being made for the annual Krug reunion which will be held on

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR SALE—$85 Airway Sweeper, this year's model, used one month, for $30; 1934 Plymouth Two door car in A-1 condition, all new rubber, price $235.—Mrs. Adolph Hofer, 415 Palmer Avenue, Patton.

FOR RENT—Four rooms; these rooms have been painted and papered in the new. Call on James A. Link, Blacksmith, 501 Fifth Ave., Patton, Pa.

FOR SALE—Westinghouse Electric Range; cheap to quick buyer. Inquire at 121 Linwood avenue, Patton.

FARM FOR SALE—70 acres, 5 of coal; one two-story nine room house and one cottage; new barn and other outbuildings. If interested write Geo. E. Swartz, Flinton, Pa.

FOR RENT—Four room apartment with private bath and heat. Two rooms upstairs, two down. Also furnished bedroom for rent. Inquire 219 East Magee avenue.

Chief of Legionnaires

History of the French Foreign Legion seems written in the features of bearded General Leggett, called the "Father of the Legion." The general, together with his legionnaires, visited Paris recently to march in the Bastille day parade, celebrating the 150th anniversary of the French revolution.

Saturday, August 26th at the Nicktown Picnic Grounds.

Miss Doris Bloom is spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. F. C. Sharbaugh, in Ebensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Jackson and son, Rowland Jackson, of Vandergrift, spent the week end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Anstead, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown and daughter, Carol Mae, Mrs. Winifred Fitzpatrick, Misses Catherine King and Theresa Hartwick, spent Sunday in the Black Moshannon Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hoover of East Carroll Township, announce the birth of a son on July 27th.

Earl Dietrick, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dietrick, underwent an operation for appendicitis on Saturday last at the Spangler hospital. His condition is reported as good.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Grieff announce the birth of a son at the Spangler hospital. Mrs. Grieff, before her marriage was Miss Isabelle Whiteford.

Misses Anna Lacava, Alberta Cordell, Catherine Grace, and Grace Ulrich, are on a week's vacation attending the New York World's Fair.

Mrs. Louis Hoover and children of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Katz and children of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending their vacation at the Harry Hoover home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strittmatter motored to Pittsburgh Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Banns of matrimony were announced on Sunday in St. Mary's Church between Miss Mary Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker of St. Boniface, and Charles Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callahan of this place.

Mrs. Thos. Daugherty and daughter, Donna, are spending some time with relatives in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Strittmatter, Mr. and Mrs. Englert and Miss Marguerite Karheim have returned home after spending a week's vacation at Rehovoth Beach, Delaware.

The Public Assistance Department has announced examinations will be held in nine cities Saturday afternoon, October 7th, for applicants to senior tabulating machine positions.

HASTINGS BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Ligouri Lacey and children of Carrolltown were Sunday visitors at the A. J. Dillon home.

Miss Betty Rouch spent the week end in Connellsville.

Fred Gill spent Sunday visiting in Cresson with relatives.

Paul Prescott of Cassandra spent the week end at the Houck home in East End.

Miss Genevieve James is visiting relatives in Pittsburgh.

Local people in attendance at the first aid meet held in Phillipsburg recently were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. William Rubus, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Borne, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCoy, Mr. John Brazil, and daughter, Sidney, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Riordan, and Messrs. Dewy Anderson and Jay Brothers.

Misses Betty Hricko and Ann and Gertrude Bakajzi of New York, are spending this week at their homes in Hastings.

Mrs. John James is spending several weeks in Dover, N. J.

Mrs. Harry Lann of Akron, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Burns of Barnesboro, were Sunday evening callers at the Dennis Riordan home.

Pryce McMonigle of Rahway, N. J., is spending some time at the William Thomas home.

Pryce McMonigle, of Rahway, N. J., is spending some time at the William Thomas home.

Mrs. Paul Sheehan and son, Howard, spent the week at the Albert Gill residence.

Miss Anita Sharbaugh of Carrolltown was a Sunday caller at the A. J. Houck home.

Edward Brothers and Samuel McClelland of Johnstown, were at their homes here over the week end.

Mrs. Helen Mancuso entertained a number of her classmates at her home last Thursday evening. The occasion was her 17th birthday anniversary. The usual party program was carried out. The hostess received an assort-

Serve Yourself to Savings!

Garden Fresh Produce At Bargain Prices! Peaches 5 lbs. 25c Pears, 3 lbs. 25c Watermelons, ea. 39c Onions, 6 lbs. 19c Calif. 'Lopes, 2 for 19c

Table listing various food items and prices: TOMATOES, PICKLES, MUSTARD, PLAIN OLIVES, RED SALMON, SNACK, PEANUT BUTTER, PINEAPPLE, CLEANSER.

Table listing various food items and prices: Pacific Toilet Tissue, Crisco, Chipso, Coffee, Soup, Cake.

SCRATCH FEED DAILY EGG, 100 pound bag $1.59

Table listing various food items and prices: GREEN BEANS, CIDER VINEGAR, OLIVE OIL, SHAKER SALT.

EVAP. MILK Pure, Safe White House 10 TALL CANS 55c

Table listing various food items and prices: EVAP. MILK, RICE KRISPIES, SHREDDED WHEAT, CAKE FLOUR, MATCHES.

JUICY, SAVORY CUTS OF MEATS - PRICED LOW!

Table listing various meat items and prices: CENTER CHUCK ROAST, PORK SHOULDER ROAST, STANDING RIB ROAST, STEAKS, HAMS, HAMBURGER, LAMB, MEATY RUMP.

SUPER A & P MARKET SELF SERVICE Owned & Operated by the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

450 Magee Ave.; Patton, Penna.

ment of useful gifts. The following attended: Misses Thelma Strittmatter, Dorothy Robinson, Patty Houck, Phyllis Strittmatter, Betty Bobal, Kathryn Jansure, Jane Holtz and the hostess.

Ann Clawson of Marsteller spent the past week at the Rager home.

Mrs. A. J. Dillon and daughter, Bridgid, visited with relatives in Altoona several days the past week.

Miss Anna Mary Bobal of Barnesboro, was at her home here over the week end.

Miss Peggy Anna, of Akron, Ohio, was a guest at the McDermott home in East End.

Mrs. Oliver Commons and son, David, of Cherry Tree, spent several days at the Brazil home last week.

Mrs. A. T. Strittmatter and granddaughter, Betty Dillon, motored to Altoona on Friday.

Mrs. Walter Elder of Pittsburgh is spending the week here with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cosmos Elder.

Mrs. Thomas Robinson spent the past week with relatives and friends in Altoona.

Mrs. Elva Whited spent Sunday in Emehigh Run with friends.

Eugene Semelsberger was a guest at the Semelsberger home in Pittsburgh last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murtha of Pittsburgh are spending the week at the Edwin Weakland home.

Mr. A. Koozt of Canton, Ohio, returned home recently after a three weeks' visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John McKillop.

Blair Croyle of Nanty-Glo was a Sunday visitor at the George Huether home.

Mrs. and Mrs. Mark Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paterno and son, Mark, were callers in Johnstown on Saturday.

Miss Agnes Endler is spending this week in New York where she plans to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Huether and son, Bill, spent the past week end at the H. J. Huether home.

Miss Lois Jean Moore of Johnstown is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Commons.

Mrs. A. J. Houck, and daughter, Beverly, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. Local altar boys who enjoyed an outing at Shaffer's Park last Thursday are as follows: John and Pat Dillon, Donald and Arthur Holtz, Fred and Quentin Holtz, Robert Buck, Gerald Yahner, Paul Strittmatter, John Donahue, George Milchak and Martin Bearer. The boys were the guests of the Rev. Fathers Adrian and Benedict. Mr. Paul Easley and son, Ronald, Ed Easley and Ben Gill also attended. One of the highlights of the picnic was a pie eating contest from which John Dillon emerged the victor.

Miss Eleanor McDermott was hostess to a group of friends last Thursday evening in honor of her visiting cousin, Miss Peggy Anna. The affair was in the nature of a weiner and marshmallow roast. The guest list included the following: Eleanor Kelly, Jane Dillon, Mary Weakland, Peggy Anna and Adrian Semelsberger, Raymond Jansure, Junior Huether, Bill Guegen, Bill Tyler and the hostess.

Mrs. Edwin Gues and daughter, Louise, spent the past week visiting relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Milchak, Jr., is attending the New York World's Fair this week.

Misses Kathryn Jansure and Mary Louise Elder were Saturday visitors in Barnesboro.

Mrs. Stephen Jansure entertained the members of her club recently. Lunch and prizes featured. Mesdames Albert Gill, Frank Gill, Edwin Link, Vincent Link, David Elden and Margaret Kirkpatrick were in attendance.

Mrs. Thomas Ebbs was hostess at a miscellaneous shower held at the Ebbs home on Spangler street on Sunday evening in honor of her daughter, Marie, who was recently married to Russell Cunningham of this place. After an evening of entertainment the guests enjoyed a tasty lunch. The guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson, daughter, Rose, and son, Junior; Miss Catherine Berndt, and Messrs. Mark Wyant and Joe Cherry of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Weakland, Barnesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tusley of Coalport; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stoutinger and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Findlay, Jr., of Ebensburg; Mr. and Mrs. William Findley, Sr., of Nanty-Glo; and Mr. and Mrs. Otis McIlwren of Cherry Tree.

Messrs. Pete Yeager, Ray Westover, and Gordon Hoover spent the week end in Pittsburgh.

Matthew Hoover of Altoona is visiting at the Gordon Hoover home this week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Peters and sons are spending a week's vacation at Erie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Abel announce the birth of a son, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Kieth of Coal Valley announce the birth of a daughter, Eunice Rose. Mrs. Kieth is the former Elmira Hill of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan of McCartney were Sunday guests at the P. F. Yanner home.