

SOISSON AND ZUGATES IN CLEAN SWEEP, WEST PENN SKEET MEET

FRED L. SOISSON.

Tony Zugates of Indiana and Fred Soisson of Hastings, the latter the well known marksman of this section, shot a clean slate at the Western Pennsylvania Skeet Shoot held at Tarentum last Sunday, winning in the five man team with a score of 473x500. Zugates won the 410 gauge and Soisson was winner of the 20 gauge. Winning in the two man team on Sunday marked the second consecutive year for the pair with a score of 198x200. Zugates shot high gun over all with 100 straight and Soisson was runner up with 98x100. The last two matches the champs participated in recorded the score of 397x400.

Fred L. Soisson will be one of the feature attractions at the annual picnic of the Patton Aerie Fraternal Order of Eagles to be held at the St. Boniface picnic grounds next Sunday, and he will have some new and difficult shots, as well as many novelties to offer his audience. His fame as a marksman has reached far and wide, and he is called upon, far and wide. To the folks who know him best, and see his ability frequently, he has the faculty of ever attracting and of holding interest, because his unerring aim has won him national fame, and his programs are so varied, that he is always "pulling" some new marksmanship stunt.

FOUR "DAUGHTERS COURAGEOUS" COME TO GRAND
"Daughters Courageous" the Warner Bros. comedy of domestic life which shows at the Grand, Patton, on Wednesday and Thursday, August 9 and 10, could be termed a first cousin to the same studio's highly successful "Four Daughters," but is not a sequel to that picture.
The similarity starts with the cast, for every important player in the former picture is also in the new one; it had the same director, and besides it was written by a writing team one of whose members was also co-author of then it had the same director, and besides it was written by a writing team one of whose members was also co-author of the screenplay which was last year's hit.
While the plot concerns different people than those in "Four Daughters," there is a basic similarity in that the new picture is also about the joys, the sorrows, the laughs, the tears in the lives of a genuinely "folksy" family.
There are the same four daughters in this family and again they are played by Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola Lane and Gale Page. Their father again is Claude Rains, and their suitors again are John Garfield, Jeffrey Lynn, Frank McHugh and Dick Foran. May Robson again is a member of the household, this time, however, a faithful and outspoken—old servant who has been with them for years.

And this time the girls have a mother, in the person of Fay Bainter—the mother in "Yes, My Darling Daughter"—a newcomer to the cast, and their mother has a suitor, in the person of another newcomer in the cast, Donald Crisp.
The girl's errant father returns on the eve of the wedding and he soon has it within his power to upset the nice future which loomed for his little family until he suddenly appeared on the scene. The working out of this situation makes a sentimentally amusing tale with a moving denouement.
The director, as indicated above, was Michael Curtiz, and the screen play, suggested by a stage play of Dorothy Bennett and Irving White, was written by Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein.

JOBLESS BENEFITS DECLINE SLIGHTLY
Harrisburg. — Unemployment compensation benefits totalling $1,152,266 were distributed to the state's indemnified idle workers during the week ending July 21, Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry, reveals.
"Disbursements dropped slightly from the previous week's level," he said, "and original claims filed during the period showed a sharp decrease."
At the same time Hines warned employers subject to the unemployment compensation law that the dead line for contributions to the job insurance pool is midnight, August 31, after which penalties will be added for delinquencies.
Damage amounting to $600 resulted from a collision of cars near Colver on Saturday afternoon. Ebensburg substation officers said the drivers were Clifton Shadden of Colver and John R. Murphy, near Colver. The cars were traveling in opposite directions.
