BARRYMORE TOPS ACE CAST IN "ON BORROWED TIME"

Headed by Lionel Barrymore, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Beulah Bondi, Una Merkel and Bobs Watson, one of the finest all star casts of actors ever assembled on a motion picture screen will appear in "On Borrowed Time," next Wednesday and Thursday at the Grand Theatre in Patton.

With Barrymore giving one of the greatest performances of his thirty years in motion pictures as Gramp, "On Borrowed Time" tells the simple story of an old grandfather who desperately fights death in order to prevent the grandson he adores from falling into the clutches of a scheming and unscrupulous aunt.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke, distinguished British stage and screen personality, appears as the mysterious stranger, Mr. Brink, personification of death. Beulah Bondi is the devoted Granny, and Bobs Watson, most talked of child actor of the year, plays the young grandson, Paul.

Una Merkel is cast as the warmly human maid, Marcia. Nat Pendleton plays the asylum guard, Henry Travers is Dr. Evans, Grant Mitchell is Lawyer Pilbeam.

With a flavor, partly of fantasy, partly of folk-tale, partly of homespun earthy drama, "On Borrowed Time" rises to heights of imagination and of beauty rarely before attempted as it tells the simple tale of the grandfather fighting death to protect his young grandson.

Spain, England, South Africa, and seven eastern states contribute to the ceramics industry. Trinidad sends asphalt for waterproofing; Greenland, cryolite for glass and aluminum; and British Guiana, bauxite for cement and refractories.

"The movement of mineral products in Pennsylvania is fundamentally an importation of raw materials and an export of finished goods," the school reported. "With the important exception of coal, Pennsylvania is not a notable exporter of raw materials because much of the local production is utilized by the processing industries within the state. Export of finished goods is a large item and final distribution takes place in areas as remote as the source of some of the raw materials."

MINERS INDOORSE FRANK P. HOLLEHN

STATE LIMITS AREA BY COAL RESEARCH

Harrisburg. — Anthracite-bituminous coal research financed jointly by the state and the mining industries will be restricted the next two years to a small field "so we can show the next legislature something concrete has been accomplished through the Commonwealth's first $75,000 contribution." Mines Secretary Ira J. Thomas asserts. Mr. Thomas revealed the research to be conducted by metallurgists of the Pennsylvania State College School of Mineral Industries, would be concentrated on methods of covering anthracite into gas for commercial use. Some work will be done to improve hard coal preparation for use in automatic stokers.

The mines secretary said representatives of the bituminous mining industry probably would decide to limit research to new methods of washing soft coal and improving the fuel for stoker use. Each branch of the industry has contributed $35,000 to match the $70,000 appropriation of the last legislature for research of new uses for the two coals. A bill is pending in congress to appropriate an additional $54,500 for anthracite research.
