

PATTON BRIEFS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the St. Boniface Catholic church at a nuptial high mass on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Mary Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker of St. Boniface, became the bride of Charles Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callahan, of this place. The Rev. Father George, pastor, officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Hilda Becker, sister of the bride, and the best man was John Bender of Patton. The bride was attired in a white lace gown and a tulle veil with train and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of peach organza and a tiara of peach colored flowers with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate relatives. The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. On their return they will reside in St. Boniface.

A shower was held at the Eagle ball room on Wednesday evening, August 9th, in honor of Miss Mary Becker of St. Boniface, and Charles Callahan of this place, who were married this Wednesday. The entertainment for the evening was cards and dancing, which was followed by lunch. Prizes in cards were awarded. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. Approximately 225 guests attended.

A shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Heist on Monday evening in honor of Miss Erna Williams, whose marriage to Paul Thomas will take place in St. Mary's Catholic Church on Saturday, September 2nd. An enjoyable evening was spent in playing cards. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. John Thomas, Sr., Mrs. Jack Noonan, and Miss Marie Myers. The door prize was won by Miss Helen Smith. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. Lunch was served. The following attended: Mrs. Richard Bradley, Miss Mildred Pfeister, and Miss Marion Myers of Carrolltown, Misses Helen Smith, Anna Egypt, Dee Whitehead, Lorraine Wilshire, Adelaide Delpierre, Betty Nehrig, Mary Catherine Colberg, Rose Donahue, Betty Healy, Louise McLaughlin, Janet Heist, Sarah Sperry, Angeline Bianco, Bess Donahue, Leah Heist, Erma Williams, Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. John Thomas, Sr., Mrs. Jack Noonan, Mrs. Clyde Trexler, and Mrs. David Heist.

Mrs. Belle Martin of Philadelphia and Mrs. Curtis Cronmiller of State College are spending the week with friends in Patton. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Cronmiller are former residents of Patton.

Miss Nellie Champagne of Wellsboro, is a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoover of East Carroll Township, announce the birth of a daughter at the Spangler hospital on Saturday, August 12th.

Week end guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Garrity were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jolly and family of Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Gabriel Mask of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. James Beckwith and family of Murraysville.

William Bevan of Philadelphia, former resident of Patton, is visiting in town with friends.

Miss Geraldine Stauffer returned home Tuesday after spending two weeks at the New York World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Salesky announce the birth of a son on Monday, August 14th, at the Spangler hospital.

Reuben Yahner returned home on Monday from the Spangler hospital, where he was admitted on May 31, when he was injured in the Bear Rock Mines, Patton.

The eighteenth annual Krug reunion will be held in the Nicktown Grove, Saturday, August 25th, in the form of a basket picnic. There will be a high mass in St. Nicholas' church at 9 a. m. Dancing will be a feature both afternoon and evening and sports for the children in the afternoon, for which prizes will be awarded.

Banns of matrimony were published in St. Mary's church Sunday for Miss Erma Williams, daughter of Mrs. Marie Williams and Paul Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Eckenrode of Stuebenville, Ohio, are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Eckenrode of East Carroll Township.

The Italian-American Political Club of Patton were hosts to members of groups affiliated with the Italian-American Federation of Societies at the monthly meeting of the federation on Sunday in the Patton Moose hall. Russell Bianco, president of the local club, welcomed the visitors; Dr. F. Sunseri, federation leader, gave the response and presided at the meeting. Reports indicated the membership of the joint organization is increasing steadily and that a majority of the Italian-American clubs now are affiliated. Members were present from Barnesboro, Gallitzin, Cresson, Lilly, Portage, South Fork and Johnstown. Plans were advanced for observance of Columbus Day, October 12. Social and political trends were discussed. Refreshments were served by the Patton group. The next federation meeting will take place in Portage on September 17.

Approximately 70 members of the newly organized Patton Garden Club made a garden tour to Johnstown on Monday under the direction of H. C. McWilliams, county farm agent. As noted in last week's issue, a number of Johnstown and vicinity gardens were visited. A picnic supper was a feature at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Rively in Richland township. A short program was held after the supper, during which time O. A. Kipp, president of the Wayside Garden Club of Johnstown, spoke briefly. Short talks also were made by Mrs. Charles Snyder, president of the Patton Club, and George O. Simon. The Patton Club was organized only a few months ago but has been unusually active during the past few months. The organization is now planning a flower show next month.

We wish to thank Ralph Litzinger and Chas. Swab and all other persons who contributed in sending us to Cooperstown—James Tinic and Dick Burky.

There will be an open meeting of the Northern Cambria Republican Club held in the Miner's Hall at Barnesboro on Tuesday evening, August 22nd, at 8 o'clock P. M. All Republican candidates are cordially invited to be present. There will be speaking of interest to everyone. There will also be an entertainment program. You are invited to come and bring your friends.

On Friday, August 18th, a Rain-bow Luncheon will be held in the M. E. Church at 7:30 p. m. A musical program will be rendered that will be unusual talent and interest. Everybody invited. Come and bring your friends.

The marriage of Miss Cornelia Griest Rumberger, daughter of Mrs. M. H. Rumberger of 600 Palmer avenue, Patton, and William J. Nicholas, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholas of Kingstown, Pa., was solemnized in the Trinity Methodist Church, Patton, Saturday, last at 4 p. m. The Rev. James A. Turner, pastor, officiated and used the beautiful and impressive ring service. The church was attractively decorated with palms, fern, cut flowers and candleabra. Miss June Rowland, church organist, presided at the organ and presented an hour's program of nuptial music. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. S. McGaw, of Altoona, sang "Because," and "O Promise Me." The bride, who was given in marriage by the Rev. C. F. Hinkle, pastor of the Lieswyn Methodist Church, was very charming in a gown of white mousseline de soie, fashioned in princess style. Her finger tip veil was caught in a lily of the valley tiara. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of white rose buds, and lilies of the valley. Attending the bride were Miss Ester Nicholas, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor; Miss Patricia Rumberger, sister of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Grant, as bridesmaids. Byron Watkins of Wilkes-Barre, served as best man. Ushers included: Messrs. Wilson and Zilian Rumberger of Tyrone, cousins of the bride, Dr. John Allen Murray and E. Wellwood Winslow, both of Patton. Miss Ester Nicholas, maid of honor, was dressed in pale green. She wore a tiara fashioned of small flowers in orchid and white, and carried Herbert Hoover roses. Miss Patricia Rumberger wore yellow organza with a tiara similar in color and carried Johanna Hill Roses. Miss Dorothy Grant wore peach organza with a tiara of flowers and carried Talisman roses. The bridegroom and best man wore white suits. Mrs. Rumberger, mother of the bride, was dressed in old rose crepe with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of rosebuds and fern. Mrs. Nicholas, mother of the bridegroom, wore blue lace with navy accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds and fern. The bride remained in church after the ceremony to receive the best wishes and congratulations of her town friends. Later a reception was given at the Rumberger home to close relatives and friends. The bride's gift to her maid of honor was a silver bracelet and her gifts to the bridesmaids were silver necklaces. Miss Rowland, the organist, received a pearl necklace. The bridegroom's gift to the men in the bridal party were initialed key chains. Mr. Nicholas' gift to his bride was a gold necklace set with a jade stone. The bride, who is a graduate of the Patton High School, was employed in the office of the Patton Clay Manufacturing Company, at Patton. Mr. Nicholas was graduated from the Ithaca Conservatory of Music and Cornell University. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas left for a wedding trip to Virginia Beach. For her going-away costume, Mrs. Nicholas wore a navy blue and white redingote with Japonica bag and shoes. After September 1st they will be at home to their friends in Lynchburg, Va, where Mr. Nicholas has accepted a position as supervisor of music in the Careter E. Glass High School. He will also direct the choir in the Cenetnary Methodist Church in Lynchburg. Both young people are well known in Patton, where Mr. Nicholas has been supervisor of Music in the Public Schools for the past several years.
