

PATTON BRIEFS

Rev. C. Albert Thomas, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church is now able to be about after having been ill since last April, and services have been resumed. Next Sunday, September 3rd, the service will be the Holy Communion at 9:15 A. M.

The voting place in Reilly's, or East Carroll township, North, has been moved from the Reilly's Association building to Hugh Whiteford's Garage.

Fire of an undetermined origin last Friday night resulted in $800 damage to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Donahue on Beech avenue. The blaze was discovered in a bed room on the second floor at 9:45 o'clock. The Patton Volunteer Fire Company responded to an alarm and succeeded in extinguishing the flames after the second floor had been damaged. The loss is covered by insurance.

Miss Mary M. Simpson, of Patton, a harpist with the Pennsylvania Railroad Band of Altoona, stopped in Chicago, Ill., last week to play with the Mountain City Group in the Chicago Tribune Music Land Festival. Miss Simpson, her mother and her brother, W. D. Simpson, have just returned home from a trip to the Pacific coast and other points of interest, having covered a distance of 7,500 miles since July 16th.

Upon completing a nine weeks' course at the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, Miss Gertrude Long spent a week's vacation at the home of her friend, Miss Mildred Shue at Biglerville, Pa. While visiting there Miss Long visited the battlefield at Gettysburg, the state capitol at Harrisburg and the chocolate factory at Hershey, besides many other nearby points of interest.

Renee Gae Blanchet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blanchet, of 7175 North 18th Street, Philadelphia, Pa., was chosen in the annual baby parade in Ocean City, N. J., August 18th, 1939. Renee, impersonated "Little Bo-Peep" and walked away with the second honors. Mrs. Paul Blanchet was the former Miss Florence Martin of Patton. Two trophies were awarded to Renee.

The Patton Band director, Judd Dietrick, wishes to announce that he is starting classes in all band instruments on Tuesday, September 5th. Anyone wishing to enroll in the class please register with Mr. Dietrick at the Band Hall no later than September 3rd. The classes are free to all boys or girls over 11 years of age. We have a few instruments not in use but others wishing other instruments must furnish the same. The following instruments are open for use: Two alto horns, one baritone and one brass horn and some drums. We want to make a sixty-piece band for the coming year.

Due to the extreme shortage of water the Patton Borough Council and Water Works, have posted notices prohibiting the use of hose on lawns or gardens, or for the washing of cars, or other uses not absolutely necessary. Violators will be subject to arrest and fines will be imposed.

William Blatt, manager of the Patton Grand Theatre, and Andrew Senita, assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Patton, returned last Saturday from Ocean City, Md., where they had spent a few days fishing. Mr. Senita landed a 100 pound marlin. The local anglers also landed six dolphins and a large number of croakers. Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, Mr. Blatt was host to a fish fry to his employees and staff of the Grand theatre at King's restaurant, and the affair was an enjoyable one.

The picnic held at Shaffer's Park at Flinton last Sunday by members of the John White Ex-Servicemen's Club of Patton and their families proved to be a most enjoyable event, and everything planned by the committee in charge went off without a hitch. However George Humphrey claims he did not get a fair deal in his foot race contest and wants to run the same over when the new Patton Park is completed.

A new concrete walk is being constructed in front of the Grand theatre.

A group of 4-H girls from Patton, headed by Miss Rachel Gwynn were entertained Friday last by the students and faculty of Nick's Academy in Johnstown. The trip for the young ladies was made in the interest of education and was very enjoyable. They listened very attentively to a lecture on the care of the hair and were served tea by the students of the academy. The Patton group is one of those conducted by Miss Emma Hall Eastman, home economics representative of the county.

Miss Florine Leona Conrad of Chest Springs, and William Patterson of Bakerton, were married last Thursday morning in St. Monica's Catholic church at Chest Springs by the Rev. Father James Padden. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hoover of Ashville. Mrs. Hoover is a sister of the bride. The bride wore a blue dress with a short veil and carried an arm bouquet of white flowers. Mrs. Hoover wore a peach colored dress with blue accessories and carried an arm bouquet. The couple will make their home in Chest Springs.

Mrs. Marguerite F. Gill, local tax collector, announces that she will be at her office in the Good Building for collection of taxes daily, both mornings and afternoons. Morning hours are from 9 to 12, and afternoon hours are from 1 to 5.

A new class of 28 candidates was initiated into Aerie No. 1244, Fraternal Order of Eagles of Patton, at a ceremony on Sunday afternoon in the Eagles' Home. The Patton degree team was in charge of the induction ceremonies. The new class brings the total membership of the aerie to 750. George Strine, of York, Pa., deputy organizer of the Grand Aerie, was the principal speaker at the meeting. Approximately 400 persons attended.
