na Mary Hoover and Viola Callahan. Miss Regina Biller is spending the week attending the New York World's Fair. Patton folks have been well represented in the attendance at the Ebensburg Fair this week, and despite weather conditions of Monday, the attendance at the fair has been up to par. All in all, the exhibition is a good one and the revue in the arena is listed as being exceptionally good. Mrs. Anna Nagle of Hastings was honor guest at a birthday party in observance of her 75th birthday in the community hall at Amsbury recently. Work on the surfacing of a number of Patton streets has been started, and the improvements will bring a long needed improvement. Dr. George E. Dvorchak of Patton, was notified this week that he had passed the state board examination to become a practicing physician in this state. He completed his internship at McKeesport General Hospital and will practice with Dr. C. L. McCoy in Hastings. Dr. Dvorchak was graduated from the Hastings High School, St. Francis College and George Washington University. Notice—The party who took the pay envelope, cash from home of Michael

Stasko, is known, and unless the same is returned at once, prosecution will follow. The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Democratic Club will be held on Friday evening at 7 o'clock in Moose hall, Patton. All members are urged to be present. Despite all the interest you may have in the war situation, and despite the lack of interest you may have in the primary election next Tuesday, it still remains your duty as an American citizen to turn out and vote. Of course the old adage holds good: "Vote for whom you please, but vote!" A wedding of unusual interest took place on Monday of this week at 4:00 P. M., at the Methodist Church, Patton, when Miss Thelma Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wilson, became the bride of Mr. Leo W. Daff of Youngstown, Ohio. The Rev. James A. Turner officiated. Miss June Rowland presided at the organ. Eddie Donahue sang "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me." The church was tastefully decorated with fern, white gladiolus and candelabra. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in a gown of white satin, fashioned in princess style with a train three yards in length, which was carried by Dorothy Lois Rhue, cousin of the bride. Her finger tip veil was caught with a train of seed pearls. She carried white roses with Lilies of the Valley. The ring was carried by Eddie Liddell on a white satin pillow from which a cascade of white streamers fell. Attending the bride was Miss Helen Clark of Berwindale, Pa., as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses June Rhue and Gertrude Jones. Robert Semelberger of New York City served as best man. Ushers included Messrs. Robert and Wesley Wilson, uncle and brother of the bride, and Arthur Gwynn of Patton. Miss Helen Clark was dressed in a pale peach gown of mouseline de soie, and carried Talisman roses. Miss June Rhue wore pale pink and carried yellow rose buds. Miss Gertrude Jones wore aqua and carried pink rosebuds. Mr. Daff presented his bride with a diamond brooch. The reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Stanley E. Pavlock. Mrs. Daff is a graduate of the Patton High School. Mr. Daff is a high school graduate and attended Youngstown College, and is employed as manager of an A & P Super Market at that place. After the 15th of September, Mr. and Mrs. Daff will be at home to their friends at 1801 McGuffey Road, Youngstown, O. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cartwright, daughter Doris, son Wayne and grandson

Billy Smith of Detroit, Mich have returned home after a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jenkins. Out-of-town visitors over the weekend at the home of Ed Jenkins include Mr. Jenkins, Abe Jenkins and wife and daughter Jane, of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Blain Dehaven and daughter Marcha of Mansfield, Ohio.
