

VITAL NEED SOLE EXCUSE FOR NEW GRADE CROSSINGS

Harrisburg.—The Public Utility Commission has indicated its opposition to the construction of new grade crossings over railroads except where manifest need is shown when it dismissed the application of Roseto borough, Northampton county, for permission to construct a grade crossing.

THE ENEMY WITHIN OUR GATES

Foreign powers unquestionably have their agents and spies inside this country, and proper vigilance should of course be exercised in regard to their activities.

As against such plots on the part of the enemy within our gates, the CIO advances a program of true patriotism and true Americanism.

TRUCK, TAXI, BUS CONTROL GREATER

Harrisburg.—The business of regulating commercial motor vehicle registration and transportation in Pennsylvania—trucks, buses and taxicabs—has increased from 5300 motor vehicle cases brought before the Public Service Commission in the 12 months, June 1, 1936, to May 31, 1937, to the more than 10,000 motor vehicle cases brought to the attention of the Public Utility Commission in the eight and one-half months, January 1, 1939, to September 15, 1939.

GALLITZIN DRUM CORPS AGAIN WINS NATIONAL JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The crack Junior American Legion Bugle and Drum Corps again holds the national championship. The corps of 75 pieces on Monday successfully defended its title for the 4th consecutive year at the National American Legion Convention in Chicago. The corps earned a total of 93.2 points to win the championship.

The boys will leave Chicago probably Friday morning and expect to arrive in Gallitzin Saturday. Journey to the convention city was made in the two buses purchased last year for the trip to Los Angeles, Cal., where the corps successfully defended their championship title.

The party was in charge of Dr. Bergstein, organizer of the corps, and Walter Skagerberger, an officer of the Cresson American Legion Post. The corps left Gallitzin promptly at 8 a. m. on Saturday. They expected to arrive in Chicago about noon Sunday and will remain in the city until Thursday or Friday of this week.

"FOUR FEATHERS" WILL BE ATTRACTION AT GRAND SUNDAY AND MONDAY

If you treasure a good film as you do a good book, a first rate entertainment and relaxation, then top your movie list with "Four Feathers," Alexander Korda's stirring drama of adventure and romance in the Sudan.

filmed entirely in beautiful technicolor and to be presented at the Grand theatre, Patton on Sunday and Monday. "Four Feathers" is packed with action, thrills, melodrama and spectacle from the opening scene to the final fadeout. Its story centers upon a young man, Harry Faversham, who resigns his commission on the eve of his regiment's departure for the Sudan to join Lord Kitchener's Army.

DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM AT THE GRAND THEATRE ON SATURDAY EVENING

"Good-bye Mr. Chips," Jas. Hilton's charming novel, of the life of an English school teacher is one of the attractions on a double feature program coming to the Grand theatre, Patton on Saturday night. Filmed in an English studio, "Good-bye Mr. Chips" tells the story of a kindly English schoolmaster, starting his career in his twenties, becoming a veritable institution in a big English School and shaping the careers of boys destined to become great men.

DOCTORS MAKE GREAT STRIDES IN SAVING PREMATURE BABIES

Premature babies are not predestined to die, according to physicians of the Philadelphia Lying-In Hospital, who will present before the 89th annual session of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh October 2 to 5 a study of several hundred babies who weighed less than five pounds at birth.

United States is decreasing and that the development of those available is assuming increasing importance, will be pointed out at the convention by the chairman of the Section of Pediatrics.

"The moral and materials welfare of our country tomorrow will be in the hands of the children of today," he said, "and a definite place must be provided in the world of tomorrow for the child who is underprivileged by reason of physical handicap."

700,000 ARE DISMISSED FROM WPA PROJECTS

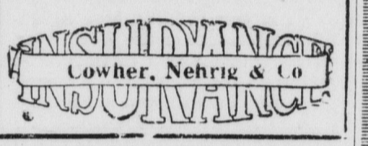

Washington, D. C. — Over 700,000 workers were dismissed from the Works Projects Administration Rolls under the 18 month rule during July and August, according to a report by Deputy Commissioner Howard O. Hunter. He added that lists had been reduced to a 1,600,557 on September 6, reflecting the final dismissal of persons who had worked 18 months continuously on WPA projects.

STATE POLICE TO GUARD DPA EXAMS

Harrisburg.—At least one state trooper will be on duty in each examination center September 30 and October 7th when Civil Service Examinations are conducted, the Employment Board for the Department of Public Assistance has announced. They will be supplemented by local police in the various cities.

The examination centers are Allentown, DuBois, Erie, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton and Williamsport.

To protect examination material, state troopers now are on guard at undesignated printing plants where question books and answer sheets are being prepared.

REUEL SOMERVILLE ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office in Good Bldg., Patton

They also will accompany the material to the office of the Employment Board in Harrisburg and will be on duty there until all the examinations have been conducted and the papers scored by the machine. The Employment Board has left no stone unturned to safeguard the entire examination procedure and to insure that only the best qualified persons get jobs.
