

PATTON BRIEFS

Ed Karlheim will offer at public sale at his farm, two miles south of Patton, on the Eckenrode Mill-Chest Springs road, on Saturday, Nov. 11th, starting at 12 noon, all his live stock, farm machinery, and equipment, etc. See posted bills.

Through mistake, this paper last week announced that a supper and card party was to be held at St. Augustine on Sunday, November 5th. This should have been St. Lawrence, instead. At this latter place a fried chicken supper and card party will be on the card, from 4:30 to 7:30 P. M. Adults admission is 50c and children 25c. The general public is cordially invited.

If you want to be able to talk on the subjects of how to forever end depressions, banish war from the earth, bring in an era of peace and prosperity for all mankind, and conserve for America its precious blood-bought liberties, then you will find it a great advantage for you to attend the Forum Mass Meeting that is to be held in the Methodist church on the evening of November 5th. The meeting is non-denominational, and the entire public is invited to attend, listen to the lecturer, and ask all the questions desired. Here is a splendid opportunity to acquaint yourself with some of the great issues of the day, and every wide awake and intelligent person will certainly want to be present. Come and bring someone with you.

Mrs. Bertha Schwabeland, formerly Miss Bertha Weakland, accompanied by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fuchs and daughter, Marya, of Baltimore, Md., were recent guests of the Misses Emma and Malvina Weakland.

John Symosky, of Elmora suffered lacerations of the body and Ellis Haines of Hastings suffered contusions and lacerations of the body on Saturday afternoon when their cars collided on Route 36, two miles north of Patton. Damage to both cars was extensive.

Six persons suffered minor injuries on Saturday night when two cars collided on the Patton and Carrolltown road. One machine turned over after the collision. Operators of the cars were Matthew Polesky, Jr., of Emigh and Albert Petock of Portage. Both suffered lacerations of the face and bruises.

Mrs. Annie Welytk, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Welytk, and Michael Welytk, of Detroit, Misses Nancy and Ann Zagradnichek of Homer City, spent a day recently with Mrs. Harry Baker of Patton.

Lewis Baker of Washington, D. C.,

spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker of Patton. Other Sunday guests at the Baker home were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Steffy and Mr. and Mrs. Swartz Steffy.

Banns of matrimony were published in St. Benedict Church, Carrolltown on Sunday for Miss Dolores Hoover of East Carroll Township and Gene Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sutton of Munster.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Blatt, were Mrs. Stauffer and son Robert, Mrs. Blatt and daughter Peg, all of East Brady.

Announcement was made of the coming marriage of Leo Burk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk of Chest Springs and Cecelia McConnell of Cresson. Their marriage will take place on November 8th.

A masquerade Haloween Party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Simelsberger on Monday evening. The prize for the best dressed was won by Al Selko. The evening was spent in playing cards and a lunch was served.

Mrs. Virginia Garrity celebrated her 82nd birthday anniversary on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Garrity of Lang Avenue. The guests over the week-end at the Garrity home were: Mr. and Mrs. James Jolly and son, James Jr., all of Akron, Ohio.
