SANTA CLAUS, IND., IS ENJOYING A BOOM

Santa Claus is just about all things to all people in one form or another. To the youngsters he is the jolly old their hearts desire. To mothers, he is a lot of work, but fun, too. Fathers row is scheduled for the Grand thea- Brother, John A. Urich, and Claus post mark .Extra workers business rush.

To stamp collectors goes the credit for putting Santa Claus on the map. Back in 1926 a Los Angeles philatest tent a letter to the town to be postmarked with the coveted name. The town then was Santaclaus (one word). The stamp collector suggested the cony name of the town be changed to two words. His idea was carried through NEW WEIGHMASTER'S and as soon as the name appeared on BLANKS TO postal guides, the town was flooded with mail from other philatelists who wanted the unique post mark.

Now a big bulk of the postoffice's business comes from firms want to send out Christmas literature William S. Livengood has announced. under the post mark of Santa Claus.

OF ELIZABETH AND ESSEX" AT THE GRAND

"The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex" the new Warner Bros. technicolor production, starring Bette Davis and Errol Flynn will be the attraction at the Grand theatre, Patton, on Fri-day and Saturday of this week, carrying to still greater heights their parade of new show season hits which has included such memorable films as "The Old Maid," "Each Dawn I Die"

Bette Davis, of course, is cast as the self willed, vain and domineering Queen Elizabeth, torn between her love of England and its people and her overwhelming love for the handsome and dashing young Earl of Essex. Flynn as Essex has precisely has precisely the type of role in whice he has endeared himself to audiences the world over—that of a handsome swashbuck ding hero, as victorious in love as he is in war. But his victory over Elizabeth is short lived in the film; for, loving him, she sends him to the executioner's block, because she realizes persons having interest to acquire said that if England is to live, Essex must die .Played against the spectacular background of the pomp and pageant-ry of the Elizabethan court, the love story is still the all-important theme on which the film is focused. The brilliant supporting cast for the two stars includes Olivia De Haviland 3t. Stephenson Alan Dale, Ralph Forbes,
