A WEEKLY STORY ON CATHOLICITY, FROM THIRD ORDER SECULAR, LORETTA, PA.

Is the Catholic Church the Church of the Ignorant? Well, maybe. But note this only partial list of the many brilliant minds in the literary field alone, who in recent memory, have come into the Catholic Church in adult life with eyes wide open:

"John Asycough," Maurice Baring, Edwin Harrison Barker, Robert Hugh Benson, Katherine Breyer, Heywood Brown, Orestes Brownson, Dom Bede Camm, Cecil Chesterton, G. K. Chesterton, Isabel Clarke, Paul Claudel, John Wm. Conybeare, Dr. Herbert E. Cory, F. Marion Crawford, Doris Day, Christopher Dawson, Richard Dehan, Shaleen P. De'neis, Mary Angela Dickens, Edid Dennis, Owen Francis Dudley, Richard Lynn Edsal, Ethel Cook Elliott, Mrs. Hugh Frazer, Sir Philip Gibbs, Davind Goldstein, William Hard, Joel Chandler Harris, Rose Hawthorne, Carlton J. H. Hayes, Christal Hollis, Johannes Jorgensen, Joyce Kilmer, Frederick J. Kinsman, Ronald Knox, George Parsons, Lathrop Shane Leslie, D. B. Wyncham Lewis, Robert H. Yes, the Catholic Church is the church of the ignorant—the church of the intelligent—the church for every man, no matter what his race, color, social status or type of mind.

To know more of the Catholic Church—its history, its people, its beliefs and practices, would be, we think, interesting. May we tell you briefly about these things or refer you to books that will give you the information? Write to: Third Order Secular, Loretta, Pa.

WITNESS SHOT WHILE HUNTING. Clearfield. James A. Garmond Johnson, 51, Mahaffey, was killed while hunting less than 24 hours after being summoned to appear before the grand jury to testify about the knife slaying of Harold Hutten, also of Mahaffey. Assistant District Attorney William C. Chase reported Johnson would have been the state's star witness. He expressed a belief the man shot himself.

STATE "NEW DEAL" MAY TAKE McNUTT AS SECOND CHOICE

Harrisburg.—A visit to Pennsylvania by Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, brought his name to the front last week among State Democratic party leaders as their possible "second choice" for the presidential nomination next year.

The hite haired former governor of Indiana was given a reception Friday at a Philadelphia hotel arranged by a number of aptly leaders, including congressmen, state legislators and also county chairmen.

Top flight party leaders in the state long ago came out for President Roosevelt for a third term but in recent months reports have drifted into the capitol of a sounding of sentiment for a second choice should the president decide against running.

Some informed sources among the Democratic leadership said quiet conferences which have been in progress in recent weeks may crystallize into an agreement on McNutt should Mr. Roosevelt step out—placing him in line for Pennsylvania's big bloc of 72 votes at the national convention.

Geared to the Presidential talk is speculation over the Democratic nominee for United States Senator in next year's election.

Senator Joseph F. Guffey months ago declared his support of Roosevelt for a third term and at the same time announced his intention to run for re-election.

Others who have been mentioned as possible candidates include Auditor General Warren L. Roberts of Bethlehem; John B. Kelly, city chairman in Philadelphia; Thomas Logue of Philadelphia, former secretary of internal affairs, and William Bullitt and Anthony Biddle, both wealthy Philadelphians, serving as United States Ambassadors.

KEPHART URGES U. S. TO BREAK WITH REDS

Philadelphia.—Chief Justice John W. Kephart of Pennsylvania, in a statement last week urged the government of the United States "to sever immediately its relations with Soviet despotism of Russia by recalling the United States Ambassador and handing the blood-stained ambassador of Russia his passport."

Commenting on the Finnish-Russian dispute Justice Kephart said: "It is not within my province as chief justice of Pennsylvania to comment on national and international affairs but as a private citizen which which I hope to be within 20 days, I can express my horror and amazement upon the unwarranted attack of Communistic Russia upon the little Republic of Finland."

Justice Kephart's term on the Supreme Court expires this year. "The people of Pennsylvania," he said, "call upon their representatives in the Congress to protest against this latest totalitarian outrage and to demand that the United States Government immediately sever its relations with Russia."

—Being Directions On How to Carve Christmas Turkey

Gather round ye masters of the Christmas dinner table! Uncle Sam will teach you a lesson:

The government has issued an official bulletin on the proper technique for carving the Christmas turkey.

The bulletin rules on such important problems as whether the father should stand or sit while doing the honors and the position of the turkey on the platter. All you have to do is read this, and carving the festive bird will be a lead-pipe cinch.

"The turkey rides on the platter back down," says the bureau of home economics. "The first problem is father's: Should he stand or sit while carving?"

There are two schools of thought on this subject, and the government grants father his constitutional rights to do as he pleases. But it is suggested, after deliberation, that a short person had best stand and a tall person should sit for the most effective work. Are you short or tall?

The next problem, says the bulletin, is the point of attack. It is here that many a head of a house, the bureau believes, has lost the Christmas spirit through ignorance or awkwardness—or just plain stubbornness.

Only a few simple rules need be followed. The most important, of course, is to keep the bird on the platter, because it's rather difficult to work on the floor. Also, the bureau estimates, a bird on the platter is worth two on the tablecloth.

"First," the bureau said, "remove the leg from the body by grasping it in your left hand (but what if you're left handed?) and cutting straight down to the hip joint. Remove the wings and the other leg."

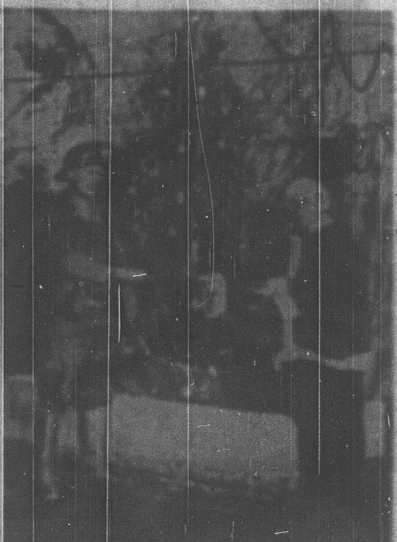

"Then place the fork squarely across the breastbone toward the end of the keel, to anchor the bird while you carve the breast in slices; using a slightly sawing motion."

If you don't like the shape of your turkey, or the distribution of dark and white meat, well—why not have your wife carve in the first place?

Christmas Hymns Ring From Depths Of Michigan Mine

ISHPEMING, MICH.—"Silent Night, Holy Night" drifts mysteriously up the pitch-black Morris mine shafts here. Down below, 1,300 feet underground, 200 grimy-faced workmen pause for the world's most unique Christmas party, an annual event held at the Inland Steel company's iron mine here.

Fun and Austrian, Swede and Englishman, Italian and Irishman, these helmeted giants of the earth join lustily in Christmas hymns as elevators carry them to the 1,500-foot level where their party is held. "Genial Jim" Fowler, 22, a coal-timber boss, strikes forth in a Santa Claus costume and takes his place at the brightly lighted tree. Like children around a tree at home, the miners stand eager and expectant.

Gifts are 15-trickling reminders of errors during the year. Last year, for example, the mine carpenter was given a rule—inspired by a six-inch error made a few months earlier.
