ROMANTIC SURPRISE IN DURBIN HIT AT GRAND SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Deanna Durbin's sixth picture, "First Love," comes to the Grand in Fatton on Sunday and Monday next. Presenting the young star in a more mature role than any she has ever attempted, "First Love" finds her riencing her first romance. The picture is an original screen play and was made at Universal statios by the same staff which produced all former Deanna Durbin successes.

Deanna will be seen as at orphan girl whi is forced to live with an aunt and uncle, and two cousins her own age. They are rich and snobbish look upon Deunna as a poor reand look upon Deanns as a poor re-lation. The star's personality, con-sideration and kindness win over the servants and finally brong about an upheaval in the family.

In the picture Deanna encounters her first love affair, a boy and girl romance between herself and Robert Stack, a screen newcomer in the role of a young bachelor who is the object of the affections of Deanna and of Helen Purrich, who plays one of of Helen Purrich, who plays one of the spobbish cousins.
