DATES FOR MINES FIRST-AID EVENTS ARE SET IN STATE

The 1941 first-aid contest of the Central Pennsylvania Safety Association will be held in Johnstown the week of August 18.

The date was assigned the organization at a meeting of the Pennsylvania First-Aid Association held last Friday in Pittsburgh.

Bart C. Leonard of South Fork was reelected treasurer of the group, and Francis J. Feehen of the U. S. Bureau of Mines was named secretary.

Dates for other regional first-aid meets in Pennsylvania were decided upon as follows: Uniontown, August 2; Indiana, August 9; and New Kensington, August 16.

For the first time this year the anthracite region will be embraced by the association and a schedule of first-aid contests will be set up for that region.

Representatives from this district present at the Pittsburgh meeting were Mine Inspectors Roy Joseph of Johnstown, F. W. Cunningham of Somerset, M. W. Thomas of Windber, Dennis J. Keenan of Barnesboro, William Lament of Ebensburg.

GEORGE E. BENDER IS NOW A MAJOR
