'ON THE HOME FRONT'

Every patriotic citizen will want to qualify as a "Victory Gardener." To do so, you must conserve seed and fertilizer and get the best possible result from your garden by proper planting. See your garden through once it is started and do not lose enthusiasm on the first hot day. In other words: "Grow vitamin rich vegetables—for Vitality—for Victory."

Mrs. Jas. L. Snyder, chairman of the Victory Garden Committee, again reminds all patriotic citizens that if they have a back yard garden or a plot of ground not in use, to kindly advise her, as some of Patton's citizens, particularly apartment dwellers, may be anxious to have the use of a small piece of ground for garden purposes.

MALARIA

Malaria is one of the most devastating diseases of mankind.

It is claimed to kill 2,000,000 persons every year.

In the United States alone there are almost 1,000,000 cases with 5,000 deaths annually.

Most of the cases in this country are limited to the southeastern states and the Mississippi River basin.

With our world-wide interests today, the subject of malaria has more implication than ever before.

Malaria is an infectious disease transmitted from person to person by the bite of an infected mosquito.

Malaria is characterized by attacks of severe chills, fever, and sweating. Such attacks may occur every day, every other day or within an interval of three days between chills.

Even after recovery from a severe attack, malaria may become chronic through occasional relapses.

Malaria is an ancient disease recognized in the earliest records. Quinine has been the standard drug in the treatment of malaria.

Because the administration of this drug must be continued for a long period—daily for eight weeks or more—it is often difficult to induce patients to adhere to this treatment.

Recent discoveries of new drugs have put into use three accepted antimalarial drugs which may be used or substituted in certain instances because of their selective action.

The Malaria Commission of the League of Nations in 1937 authorized leading malarialogists to conduct experiments to determine as nearly as possible the best treatment for the individual with malaria.

The three drugs now in use are quinine, atabrine and plasmoquine.

Most successful results come from the proper choice of drug—and this is the responsibility of the physician in charge.

those falling on concrete or metal, according to the Bureau of Mines. In either case it is necessary to wait about one minute for the hermit to burn itself out before trying to extinguish the bomb.

In dealing with a bomb on concrete or metal, use a shovel or scoop to spread—NOT throw—a layer of pitch over it. If a short flame persists, apply another layer of pitch and allow it to cool ten minutes before removing it from the house or office in a bucket or metal container. Although the bomb may continue to smoke for a few minutes, it will not burn again because the pitch encircles it in an airtight blanket, shutting off its necessary oxygen supply.

To extinguish a bomb on a wood floor such as an attic, cover the bomb with a layer of pitch to stop the heat and glare. Then spread a layer of pitch on the floor nearby, rolling the bomb with a long handled shovel or hoe onto this layer and covering the entire mass with more pitch. This is necessary because the burning bomb can get air through the pores and cracks of the wooden floor.

GALLITZIN MINERS OPPOSE MONEY COLLECTING MOVE

Members of Gallitzin Local 1056, U. M. W. A., have gone on record as opposing the move of John L. Lewis to collect sums of money which were loaned to the CIO by the mine workers in a resolution favoring continuance of making per capita payments.

The resolution states that "we consider the advances which our organization has made to the CIO in the past in the light of a just contribution which we were glad to make, and not as a loan for which we intend to exact payment by fair means or by foul."

In the event of the CIO returning the money, the members have gone on record as favoring the "paying back to the rank and file members the money which they gladly assessed themselves to make money available for the job or organizing the unorganized."
