

PATTON BRIEFS

Pvt. John Tirpack of Lang avenue, Patton, is receiving his basic training in the Army at the Cavalry Replacement Training Center at Fort Riley, Kansas. It is the nation's only horse and mechanized training center. Pvt. Tirpack was well known for his hunting with bow and arrow when in Patton.

Apprentice Seaman Sandy Cammarata, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Cammarata, of Lincoln Avenue, is spending a several day leave at his home here, following completion of his basic training period in the U. S. Navy at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Seaman Cammarata is a former employee of the Press-Courier office. He is pleased with Navy life.

Mr and Mrs. Ben Williams announce the birth of a son, Oct. 21, in the Spangler hospital. Mrs. Williams is the former Miss Bertha Solomon.

Robert A. Neubauer of Johnstown, a grandson of John Owens of this place, was advanced to the grade of sergeant recently at Madison, Wis., where he is assigned to the Army Air Force Technical School.

William J. Simpson of this place, last week entered training as an aviation cadet. The young man had enlisted for this service several months ago, but had only received his call.

Corporal Randolph Powell has returned to Camp Kilmer, N. J., after spending a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Elvie Powell.

Mrs. Gust DeGand and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Chueta and daughter, Nancy Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Smith have returned to Tampa, Fla., after a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Elvie Powell.

Mrs. Charles Anderson was a week end visitor in Lewistown.

All members of the Women's Democratic Club are requested to attend the Masquerade Hallowe'en Party to be held on Monday evening, November 2, in the Moose Hall. Regular meeting and nomination of officers will follow the party.

A group of friends met at the home of Mr. Terrezza on Beech avenue on Friday night, Oct. 23, for a Hallowe'en party. Games and entertainment were the features of the evening. An enjoyable time was had by all. Attending were: Rita Petrusky, Betty Ann Shuss, Joan and Rita Hoover, Mary C. Young, Anna May and Herman Ianiello, Arlene McAlister, Jerry and Phyllis Rogers, Marjorie and Billy Turnbull, Anita Lacava, Nancy Lee Lauwerts, Louise Terrezza.

The November meeting of the Patton Music Club will be held Tuesday evening, November 3, at the home of Mrs. Ralph E. Good. The program which has been arranged by Mrs. Fred Arble, will begin at 8 p. m., and will be presented by Miss Marjorie Myers, Ebensburg pianist, and the Misses Lois Mechling and Lovell Nicholson, of Barnesboro, who will sing a number of duets. Dues are payable at this meeting. Light refreshments will be served by the hostess committee.

Misses Monica Baker and Eleanor Cihan of Detroit, spent several days at their respective home in Patton.

Mrs. E. P. Cooper was elected president of the Garden Study Club of Patton Tuesday evening at the regular meeting held in the Drug Company building. She succeeds Mrs. C. A. Snyder. Mrs. Richard Shannon was named vice president and Miss Agnes Palcho secretary-treasurer. An original program of fun was arranged by Mrs. Frank Schwab and Mrs. Richard Shannon, which was followed by lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buck of Patton R. D., have received word that their son, Corp. Thomas J. Buck, was made the honor student on graduating day at the Aviation Service School in Jacksonville, Fla., and hence attained the grade of Corporal in the U. S. Marine Corps. He enlisted in the Marines on Feb. 18, 1942 and has left San Diego for overseas duty. His brother, Pfc. Raymond Buck is serving in the Marines somewhere in the South Pacific. Pvt. James F. Buck is in the U. S. Army at Fort Warren, Wyoming.

Mrs. I. T. Strittmatter has returned home after spending the past two months with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Strittmatter in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Yeckley of Loretto announce the birth of a son. Howard Yerger of Patterson, N. J., visited his mother, Mrs. M. J. Yerger for several days.

Mrs. Andrew Rhody and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rhody, spent the week end in Erie, Pa.

Apprentice Seaman George McLoughlin, of Newport, R. I., spent a five day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLoughlin.

Staff Sgt. Joseph Bobby of March Field, California, is spending a fifteen day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Bobby of Patton R. D. This is his first furlough since entering the service seventeen months ago.

Sgt. Mike Sholtis of Camp Gordon, Ga., returned after spending a three day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sholtis of Patton, R. D. Charles Swab was admitted to the Cleveland Clinic Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, last Wednesday, suffering an infected leg. Mrs. Swab accompanied her husband, and returned home Sunday.

Yeoman James Fitzpatrick, of the U. S. Navy, recently spent a three-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Winifred Fitzpatrick. Mrs. Ed Brown and daughter, Carol Mae, of New Kensington are also spending a week as the guest of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH
Thursday, Oct. 29, 7 p. m.—Members of the Adult Bible Class meet to discuss plans for Annual Election Day Supper, 8:00 p. m., Hallowe'en Party under leadership of youth fellowship. All must come masked or suffer penalty.

Sunday, Nov. 1—"The Church at Study" at 9:45. Topic: "The Christian View of Marriage." "The Church at Worship" at 10:30. Topic: "The Christian Votes." The Methodist Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p. m. Leader of devotions, Jack Williams; leader of discussion, Miss June Rowland. Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Theme: "The Prepared Table."

Tuesday, Nov. 3, 5 to 8 p. m.—The Annual Election Day Supper under the auspices of the Adult Bible Class. Tickets, 50c.

Wednesday, Nov. 4, 3:45 p. m.—The Junior League; 7:30 p. m.—Midweek Service.

Plans are under consideration concerning an Institute of Christian Living to be sponsored by Barnesboro Sub-District group of the Methodist Church. The place of meeting is to be Trinity Methodist Church, Patton. More details later.

DO YOU KNOW.

The pepper, cloves and nutmegs of the East Indies were the prizes men fought over in the early days. Food was of low grade in Europe and meat spoiled rapidly. Spices were added to foods to make them palatable.

MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING AND RUBBER FOOTWEAR AT LOWEST PRICES

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING NOW!

JOE'S CUT-RATE STORE BARNESBORO

If you're looking for Values in New or Used Furniture Attend our

GRAND OPENING WOLF'S ANNEX

In the large storeroom recently vacated by A&P, Barnesboro . .

Saturday, Oct. 31st

WOLF FURNITURE CO., ANNEX PHILADELPHIA AVE. BARNESBORO, PA.

PROCRASTINATION IS THE THIEF OF TIME!
CHOOSE THE WATCH YOU WANT NOW
USE OUR CONVENIENT LAY-AWAY PLAN!

THE DEMAND WILL SOON SURPASS THE SUPPLY

BULOVA Lady's "Elizabeth," 17 jewels. Yellow gold color. $24<sup>75</sup>

ELGIN Man's 15 jewel model. Smart and dependable. $37<sup>50</sup>

GRUEN "Henrietta" for ladies. 15 jewels. Gold filled. $24<sup>75</sup>

HAMILTON Man's "Sentinel" 17 jewel dependable watch. $46<sup>75</sup>

"The Store for SAFE Diamond Buying"

Louis Luxenberg

Established 1903
Phone 187 Barnesboro, Pa.

LAY AWAY A WATCH FOR CHRISTMAS

HASTINGS NOTES

Mrs. David Elden visited relatives in Altoona last Tuesday.

Miss Florence Jansure was a visitor in Ashville Thursday.

Miss Josephine Dominic of Barnesboro, was a week end guest at the W. B. Dillon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKillop and Mrs. W. B. Dillon were Sunday visitors in Westover.

Philip Carretti of Detroit, Mich., visited friends here last Tuesday.

Miss Mary Weakland, employed in Pittsburgh, spent the past week end here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weakland.

Mrs. William Rounsley and Mr. and Mrs. Arch Rounsley of Barnesboro, visited relatives here last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allport, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allport and daughter Susan motored to Houtzdale and Phillipsburg Sunday to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Torallo of Rockville, Md., spent the week end here.

Adrian Semelsberger, employed in Cleveland, Ohio, was at his home here over the week end.

Regis Lantzy of Detroit, Mich., spent several days last week here with his father, B. A. Lantzy.

Paul Coe of Washington, D. C., was a recent caller at the Allport home on Harvey street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hindmarsh of Ashtabula, Ohio, spent several days last week at the Guegan home.

Mrs. Edwina Link, Stephen A. Jansure, John Wagner and Misses Margaret Geus and Florence Jansure were Tuesday shoppers in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. William Faterick, daughter, Janet, and son, Billie, of Beaver, Pa., were week end guests at the Brazill home. Other recent visitors were Mrs. Charles Heist of Patton and Miss Catherine Brazill of Silver Spring, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brazill and daughter, Carol Ardith, were Saturday motorists to Altoona.

Misses Ann Nesdore, Grace Mancuso, and Mary Dillon were Saturday shoppers in Altoona.

Misses Jane Dillon, Eleanor McDermott and Dorothy Robinson, Spangler Hospital nurses trainees, spent the week end at their homes here.

Mr. F. L. Soisson was a Friday motorist to Johnstown.

Sunday visitors at the Mancuso home were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Toder and children and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Toder of Greensburg.

FOUR FRANCISCANS ORDAINED IN INDIA

Four members of the Franciscan community at Loretto recently were ordained by Bishop Bernard J. Sullivan, S. J., at St. Joseph's Pro-Cathedral at Patna, India.

They are Rev. Robert Herzer, Bellevue; Rev. Urban McGarry, Warren; Rev. Hugh Schleif, Columbia, and the Rev. Martin Brodhead, Plainfield, N. J., all of whom were formerly affiliated with St. Francis College and the Catholic University of America.

The newly-ordained fathers had been established at the mission headquarters in the diocese of Patna, in India, since December, 1939. Following their arrival in India they continued their theological studies at St. Albert's Seminary at Ranchi, India.

WAR CALLS COME FIRST!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

(Political Advertisement)

MARTIN THE MAN FOR GOVERNOR

General Martin . . . is everything that a wartime Governor should be. His intimate knowledge of the State has been gained in 44 years of public service. His ability as a high-type administrator has been proved behind desks and on the fields of battle. His sincerity, his quick grasp of vital details, the confidence he inspires in others, are qualities enhancing his value in public office.

Note NOVEMBER 3rd STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN
REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA • M. HARVEY TAYLOR, Chairman