

HASTINGS NOTES

By Florence Jansure.

F. Soisson of Irwin, was a Wednesday caller at the Soisson home on Spangler Street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bokajza have returned to their home in Whiting, Ind., after spending a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. Bokajza's father, John Bokajza.

Miss Anna Shutty is on an extended visit with relatives in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Radomsky announce the birth of a daughter, in the Miners' Hospital, Spangler, October 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, Jr., announce the birth of a son, Joseph Harry, in the Spangler hospital, October 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haines, Barnesboro, announce the birth of a son at the Spangler hospital on October 22nd. Mrs. Haines is the former Mildred McDermott, R. N., of St. Boniface.

After a two weeks' visit here at the James Selfridge home, Mr. and Mrs. Weston M. Wittenburg and son, Lawrence of California, have gone to New York, where they will spend some time with relatives before returning to California. Mrs. Wittenburg is the former Mildred Selfridge.

Local relatives here have learned recently of a meeting in the South Pacific between Guy Fredo, Jr., and Earl Bush, both of the U. S. Navy.

Early in October, two other local boys—George Rubus, wounded on Saipan, now recuperating in a Marine Rest Camp at a Pacific base, and Seaman Adrian Semelsberger, stationed at the base with an amphibious supply unit, spent a day together. According to letters from the boys, they had plenty to discuss. They have planned another meeting which is to include a third serviceman from town, James Commons, who is also stationed at the base.

A large committee of ladies from St. Bernard's Parish are now formulating plans for a card party to be held in the Social Room of the church basement on Nov. 21st. Cinch, bridge and pinochle, with prizes for high scorers, and a door prize and lunch will feature. Plan now to attend.

Pvt. Henry Link, stationed at an undisclosed camp in New York, was a visitor here a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Link.

Pvt. Francis Westrick, of Camp Wheeler, Ga., is spending a furlough at the Westrick home near town.

Anthony Fredo, U. S. Navy, back in the States from duty in the South Pacific, is on a thirty-day furlough at the Fredo home. James Fredo, S. 1-c, recently returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending two weeks here. The above mentioned are two of five sons of the Fredos who are in service.

Pvt. Charles Mancuso, Army Air Corps Band, Pratt, Kansas, is spending a fourteen day furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mancuso.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Strittmatter of this place observed their 55th wedding anniversary last Saturday, October 28th. They began the day by attending a solemn high mass of thanksgiving in St. Bernard's Catholic church at nine o'clock, at which two of their sons, of Rock Castle, Va., officiated. Father Frederick was celebrant; Father Dennis was deacon, and Father Vincent, pastor of St. Bernard's, was sub-deacon. Later in the day the immediate members of the family were served a chicken dinner at the P. C. Strittmatter farm near Patton. In addition to the above mentioned sons, Fathers Frederick and Dennis, there are two sons and two daughters. A. J. Strittmatter, Otto Strittmatter, Miss Mary Strittmatter and Mrs. Charles Donahue, all residing in Hastings.

"Bob" Cronauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cronauer has enlisted in the Navy. For the past couple of years Bob has spent practically all of his time operating Cronauer's Sunoco Service Station, and during that time his genial disposition and efficient service gained for him many friends.

Lots of luck, Bob. Misses Jane Holtz, Mary Ellen Sullivan, Eleanor Kelly and Florence Jansure, local members of the Civil Air Patrol, were in Ebensburg yesterday to participate in the C. A. P. military review held at the Keystone airport. This review climaxed the summer drill sessions and outdoor military affairs of Squadron 68.
