

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Anna M. Glass.
Mrs. Anna M. Glass, aged 91 years, widow of J. I. Glass, died recently at her home in Fallentimber. She was born in 1853 in Glasgow, a daughter of John T. and Catherine Peerson. Surviving are two daughters, Mary and Cora, and a son, Howard, all of Fallentimber.

Mrs. Marcy Anna Jendras.
Mrs. Marcy Anna (Walowiak) Jendras, 76, a former resident of Barnesboro, died last Thursday in St. Peter's Hospital, New Brunswick, N. J., where she had been residing with a son. She is survived by three sons—Edward, New Brunswick; John, Somerset; and Joseph, Barnesboro. Funeral services took place on Sunday at Barnesboro and interment was made in St. Stanislaus' cemetery.

Linda Davidson.
Linda K. Davidson, the nine weeks' old daughter of John and Esther (Fisher) Davidson, was found dead in her crib at the parental home in St. Benedict last Friday morning. Coroner Patrick McDermott attributed death to pneumonia. Besides the parents a sister, Judith Ann, survives. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the home and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery at Indiana.

William Franklin Coy
William Franklin Coy, 66, a well-known Barnesboro resident, died at 5:15 a. m. Monday in his home after an illness of only three days. A member of the Barnesboro Borough Council for a number of years, he was born June 22, 1878, in Cherryhill Twp., Indiana Co., a son of George and Martha (Dick) Coy.

Surviving are his widow, the former Hannah Tovey, and two daughters—Mrs. Helen Justham, Conemaugh R. D., and Elizabeth, wife of Lt. Robert Nicholson, New Mexico. Also surviving are a brother, Chris Coy, Cherryhill Twp.; a sister, Mrs. Nora Gandolph, Indiana, and two grandchildren.

John Merise.
John Merise, aged 43 years, a veteran of World War II, died Saturday at his home, Barnesboro R. D., after an extended illness. He served nine months overseas in the Asiatic-Pacific theater of operations before his discharge from the army.

He entered the service in Oct., 1942, and was honorably discharged in July of last year. He was born Feb. 12, 1902, near Barnesboro, a son of Michael and Susan (Pashko) Merise. His mother is deceased.

Surviving are his father and two brothers and two sisters—Michael, of Barnesboro; Mrs. Anna Pnakovich, of Barnesboro; Mrs. Mary Weiser, New York City, and Frank, at home.

The funeral services were conducted on Tuesday in St. John's Catholic Church and interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Columbia Finett.
Mrs. Columbia Finett, aged 72 years, died at 1:30 o'clock last Friday afternoon at her home in East Carroll Township. She had been ill for the past several months. A native of Belgium, she was born Nov. 25, 1872. She had been a resident of the United States for the past 57 years, 43 of which she spent in the vicinity of Patton. She is survived by her husband, Arthur Finett, Sr., and two children—Arthur, Jr., and Alice, wife of Dr. R. A. Yezequel, Ebensburg. She was a sister of Mrs. Victor Odgee, Patton, R. D.; Leonard Laconte, New Castle, and Dennis, Weirton, W. Va. The deceased was a member of the First Baptist Church. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the Finett home by the Rev. Thomas A. McQuillen, pastor of the local Baptist church, and interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Dennis Link.
Mrs. Effie (Illig) Link, aged forty-five years, wife of Dennis Link, died at four o'clock on Sunday morning at her home in East Carroll township, near Carrolltown, after an illness of one month.

A daughter of the late Joseph and Ellen (Eckenrode) Illig, she was born July 24, 1899, in Allegheny township.

Surviving are her husband and nine children—Mrs. Gerald Weighner, Loreto; Sgt. Warren, with the air forces in Arkansas; Viola, Flint, Mich.; Ivo, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Edgar Springer, Carrolltown; Pvt. Maurice, with the Army in Germany, and Alvin Edgar and Oliver, at home.

The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Amanda Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Joseph Flick, both of Altoona; Mrs. Gilbert Bishop, Denver, Colo., and Timothy Illig, Bradley Junction.

Mrs. Link was a member of St. Benedict's Church, Carrolltown, and of the Altar Society of the congregation. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday morning in the church by the Rev. Father Basil Bal-Ko, O. S. B., and interment was in the church cemetery.

Thomas W. Robinson.
Thomas William Robinson, aged 67, of Hastings, died of pneumonia on Thursday night of last week at the Miners' Hospital in Spangler where he had been admitted the same morning. He was born in England on Jan. 18, 1877, a son of William and Elizabeth James Robinson and came to America when he was an infant.

Mr. Robinson had resided in Hastings for the past 32 years. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida (Daugherty) Robinson, and seven children—Earl, Altoona; Thomas, Jr., and Clayton, Detroit; Charles, chief petty officer with the Navy in the Pacific; Mrs. Lillian Dunsmore, Phillipsburg; Ellen, wife of Edward Greenaway, of Hastings; and Dorothy, student nurse at the Spangler hospital.
