

NEW STATE LAW TO SAFEGUARD THOSE BACK FROM SERVICE

Educational safeguards for returning servicemen who hope to continue their schooling under the Bill of Rights are provided in a bill enacted at the last session of the legislature and now awaiting Governor Martin's signature.

The new law will be administered by the State Board of Vocational Education and according to Dr. Paul E. Witmyer, deputy superintendent of Public Instruction, will give the state control over all private trade and technical schools.

"Under the terms of the new law all vocational training schools must be licensed in order to operate in Pennsylvania," said Dr. Witmyer.

"While I am more or less familiar with all the terms of the bill, I am not absolutely certain of the license fee, but would say around $50," he stated.

He explained that all schools must submit to the state Board of Vocational applications for permission to operate.

The application must show the name of the school, its ownership and controlling officers; the specific field of instruction to be offered and the specific purposes of such instruction.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT LORETTO COLLEGE

The Rev. Francis King, T. O. R., Registrar of St. Francis College, announces that the current semester terminated Friday, May 11th, and that registration for the summer session will be held on Monday, June 4th. Classes will begin Tuesday, June 5th, and continue through to August 24. A regular semester's work will be completed during the summer session.

Registration for courses in religion, philosophy, mathematics, chemistry, biology, education, history, English, Latin, Spanish and German is open to both resident and day students. The administration, however, reserves the right to curtail any of the above mentioned courses for which they are not a sufficient number of students.

In accord with governmental sanction, those who have completed three and one-half years of high school, if recommended by the principal, may be accepted for admission. Teachers wishing to qualify for the College Provisional certificate granted by the Department of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and those desiring to pursue courses leading to the degree of bachelor of arts and sciences may be accommodated during the summer term.

Prospective students are urged to seek further information from the Registrar, St. Francis College, Loretto, Pa.

BRILLIANT DRAMA AT GRAND THEATRE

Within the walls of the Grand Theatre, Patton, next Sunday and Monday, June 3 and 4, with a matinee on Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Columbia Pictures will present "A Song to Remember," starring Paul Muni and Merle Oberon and featuring Colonel Wilde, and it will be a rare thing in picture presentation, indeed. For two solid hours the screen will be filled with glorious music, tempestuous romance, in a story of the most romantic man and woman of the 19th Century—Frederic Chopin, the composer of lilting melodies and George Sand, the pants loving novelist of many loves.

It is a picture you will want to see, and really is a "must see" picture.

PRINCE GALLITZIN P.T.A. HAS PROGRAM

The Prince Gallitzin Parent-Teacher Association held an interesting meeting on Wednesday evening of last week in the St. Augustine hall.

Lenora Garrett, president, opened the meeting with many members and friends of education singing, "God Bless America."

Delegates to the County Council meeting gave splendid reports and exhibited the Gold Leaf membership award to the organization for having more than doubled its membership this term.

The P. T. A. can well be proud of the 32 pupils successfully passing the entrance to High School examinations.

A letter of congratulatory recognition from the War Department was read to Ethel Meloy and her pupils for their work on War Bonds in Weakland School.

The program: Hymn for Armed Forces, by the boys; Piano selection, "Sporter's Waltz," Matilda Horne; Solo, "Bell Bottom Trousers," Edna Long; Playlet, "How the Flag Was Made," by John Fogle, Donald Swanhart, Patrick Krug, Albin Schenk, Edw. Lenz, Jos. Benton, Fred Shultz; Piano Selections, "Vacation Days" and "Our School Band," by Helen and Dorothy; "The Reading," "The Inferno," by Mr. Long; Songs, by the Horne Sisters; Solo, "Irish Lullaby," by J. E. Long, accompanied by Helen Long at piano; Solo, "Always," by Ruth Horne.

Mr. Walter E. Noonan of the War Money Pass, presented the American Legion awards for outstanding school work. Awards went to James Evans of Munster, and Patty Horne of St. Augustine. Mr. Noonan explained briefly how much time and thought the Legion devotes to youths' work, and play activities, and also stressed Preparedness.

Supervising Principal J. E. Long spoke briefly on the importance of character, for life in the world of tomorrow.

Accorded selections were given by Anthony and Catherine Potchnik; Remarks were made encouraging the P. T. A., by Vincent Huber, director, and the meeting adjourned, with the closing song, "America."

SERGEANT KILLED AFTER WAR ENDS

Sgt. David J. Thomas, aged 29, of Barnesboro, who was wounded last July in France and spent four months in an army hospital, lost his life on May 9th in France, the government has informed his widow, the former Catherine Cramer of Emigh.

No details were given regarding after V-E day. The soldier was a son of Evan L. and Elizabeth Ashhurst Thomas. His father is a justice of the peace in Barnesboro.

Sgt. Thomas had been in the armed forces since May 14, 1941, and overseas since October of 1942. He is survived by his widow and parents and by four sisters and a brother—Mrs. Edna Smith and Mrs. Edith Cotter, both of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ann Boucher, New York City; Mrs. Gwen Catherman, New Brunswick, N. J.; and G. R. Thomas, Orange, N. J.

WEEDS ROB CORN CROP.

Weeds growing in corn can reduce the yield by 80 per cent, explains R. R. Cooper, extension agronomist at the Pennsylvania State College, who recommends frequent cultivations, the first of which can be done with a spike-tooth harrow.

Gasoline pipelines operated by the Engineer Petroleum Distribution Company, carry 11,000 barrels over a 200-mile line in the Mediterranean theater.

CULTIVATE RASPBERRIES.

Cultivation should be frequent and thorough in the raspberry patch to keep down the weeds, advises J. L. McCartney, extension fruit specialist at the Pennsylvania State College. Weeds, he says, compete with berries for plant food and water.

The counterfeit squad of the Criminal Investigation Division of the Mediterranean Theater recovered $500,000 worth of phoney 1,000-lire notes.
