Funeral services were conducted on Monday in St. Mary's Greek Catholic church, and interment was in St. John's Greek Catholic cemetery in Barnesboro.

NICKTOWN NEWS
BY ROSE MARIE HUBER.

Cpl. Henry Dumm and Pfc. Walter Dumm, sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dumm of this place, met in Winklarm, a little town on the German-Czechoslovakian border, on Sunday, June 10th for the first time since December 1943, when both boys were home on furlough. They spent four days together. They enjoyed their visit very much and reported grand weather. Most of this time was spent talking of home.

Cpl. Henry Dumm made the trip of 125 miles to see his brother by jeep. He is with the 9th Army in the Engineer Corps. Pfc. Walter Dumm is with the Infantry, 3rd Army. Both boys saw action in Belgium, France and Germany. Heroism of small unit and tactical ability to roll with punch enabled troops of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges First U. S. Army to whip Von Rundstedt's grand and almost successful mid-December maneuvers to separate the First and Ninth Armies from the Third and Seventh, and to postpone further progress into Germany.

Small units fought off the stab of the 1st SS Panzers as they nudged up the road leading toward Liege. For valor displayed and heroic achievements accomplished, various units were awarded citations.

In one group was a Nicktown soldier S/Sgt. Ferdinand Rietscha, who wears five battle stars. S/Sgt. Rietscha participated in the invasion of the European continent on D-Day and since going overseas in 1943 has served in England, France, Belgium and Germany. He entered service in April 1942 and received training in anti-aircraft in Fort Eustice, Va., Camp Davis, North Carolina, Atlanta Ordnance Motor Base, Georgia, and Camp Edwards, Mass.

He is one of the three sons of Mrs. Cecelia Rietscha now serving in the European Theater of operations. The other two are Pfc. Wilfred and Pfc. Leo.

Pfc. Wilfred has been overseas since 1944. He received training with U. S. Air Corps at Will Rogers Field, Muskogee Air Base, Miss., and Lakeland Air Base, Florida. He entered the army in March 1943 and served in England and France.

Pfc. Leo enlisted March 1942 as a member of the Infantry. He received his training at Fort Custer, Mich., and Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

In August 1942 he left for Iceland, where he was stationed for one year. He was then sent to England and France. While in England he met Ferdinand, whose whereabouts at the present time are unknown. Before enlistment Leo was employed in the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. in Mich.

Miss Patricia Fresh, Fred Ludwig, Lucille Lieb, Ralph Kirsch and Miss Lucille Kirsch were visitors at Latrobe last Friday.

Pvt. Albert Ludwig, who has completed his training at Camp Blanding, Florida, is spending a 10-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ludwig. On July 4 he will report to Camp Meade, Maryland.

Clifford Kirsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amanda Kirsch was admitted to Minessers Hospital, Spangler for a tonsil operation on Monday.

Mrs. Louis Ragley and Mrs. Norbert Biller were visitors among relatives in Patton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Alphonse Kirsch, Mrs. Genevieve Huber and family were callers in Johnstown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Marie Pfister is spending a vacation in New York among friends.

Werner roast was held Wednesday evening by Chester Lieb and Pfc. George Krumenacker on the Fresh Farm near Nicktown. Those present were Winnifred Lieb, James Lieb, Donna Pfister, Kenneth Kline, Mary Grace Kline, Herman Kline, Joann Kirsch, Max Kirsch, Rosemarie Huber, Mary Lou Parrish, Julia Lieb, Henry Lieb, Jean Fresh, Constance Kline, Rudolph Ludwig, Thresa Dumm, Harry Dumm, Pvt. Albert Ludwig, Mary Lou Soisson, Chester Lieb, Pfc. George Krumenacker. All reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luther of Los Angeles, California, Mr. Haden Luther, and Mrs. Olean Scott of New Kensington were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lieb on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whalen of Spangler were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amandus Kirsch on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of New Jersey and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Davis of New Bethlehem are serving overseas on a week's vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Biller.

Sgt. Homer Brown, who served for three years in the European Theater of War was given an honorable discharge. During his time he served overseas as a sergeant and three battle stars. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown.

Mrs. Francis Mar of Lock Haven is spending a vacation at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martin Hoppell.

Seaman 1-John Fresh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Fresh of Benbridge spent this week end with his parents.
