NICKTOWN NEWS

BY ROSE MARIE HUBER

Miss Rose Kirsch is spending several weeks visiting among relatives in Hollidaysburg and Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Dietrick of Detroit, Mich., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hagley over the week end.

Mr. Joseph Stinshiser was discharged from the Miner's Hospital last Wednesday. Mr. Adrian Peters and sons and Richard Lovette Jr. were among visitors in Pittsburgh last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kirsch and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheehan of Johnstown on Sunday. Mrs. Sheehan is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kirsch.

Miss Geraldine Krug of Altoona was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Priester over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambour and family of Pottstown were visitors at the Fred Lambour home this past Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Biller of Nicktown were visitors among relatives in Cresson on Sunday. The banns of marriage were published on Sunday in St. Nicholas' Church for Miss Imogene Critch of this place and Mr. Edward McCormick of Sacred Heart Parish in Bakerton.

Mrs. R. G. Fresh and daughter, Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludwig were visitors in Centre County at the Northern Cambria Hunting Lodge on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Noel of Johnstown were visitors at the William Natcher home Sunday.

Miss Lucille Lieb of this place and Stanton Duman, recently discharged member of the Army Air Forces, of Ebensburg, were married Thursday morning, Oct. 25, at 9 o'clock in St. Nicholas' Church by Rev. Father Bertrand McFadyen.

Miss Olene Duman and Charles Lieb were the attendants at the very pretty wedding. The bride wore a white net and lace dress and a finger-tip veil. She carried yellow rose buds. The bridesmaid was attired in a blue gown and matching shoulder-length veil and carried pink rose buds.

Mr. Duman served 31 months in the C. B. I., and wears the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with 7 battle stars. After the mass the wedding party and Fraters Joel and Wilfred and Fathers Jerome and Bertrand had a wedding breakfast at St. Nicholas Hotel. A reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.
