We Honor the Boy Scouts

Yes, the war is over—but the greatest struggle of all time is just beginning—the struggle for world peace. Scouting, with universal appeal to boys and men, is pledged to work and build a better world—united in its determination that there will always be peace on earth. Feb. 8th to 14th is the Boy Scout Anniversary observed not only by three million Boy Scouts in seventy-three lands—but by every man and woman the world over. For here is an organization composed of the finest youths everywhere—building through its high standards—the stalwart men of tomorrow. Let us honor the Boy Scouts on their 36th Anniversary as they build together a united world for an everlasting peace.
