PIRATES' MANAGER SPANGLER LISTS FOR COMING SEASON STILL FRANKIE FRISCH

Starting his seventh season as manager of the Pittsburgh club, Frankie Frisch has the highly credited record of having failed only once to finish in the first division. This was in 1942, when the Pirates landed fifth. They finished fourth in 1940, 1941, 1943 and 1945, and came in second in 1944.

In those six years under Frisch, the Pirates won 477 games and lost 439, a percentage of .521. Only in 1942 did they fail to play better than .500 ball. That gives Frisch a managerial record of finishing 9 times in the first division in 11 seasons. He was outside the select circle of the first four in only one of his five years previously as the St. Louis Cardinals manager.

Frank Frisch holds the distinction of being the only man in baseball who ever won a World Series and was named MVP of the season in the same year. He won the World Series with the Cardinals in 1925 and was named MVP of the season in 1926.

Frisk finished the 1933 season as manager of the Cards, but was not reappointed until July 2, 1934, when he was replaced by Charlie Grimm. Frisk's first full season as manager was in 1935, when he was replaced by Grimm.
