A lovely June wedding took place in St. Bernard's Church at Hastings on Saturday morning when Imogene Miller, daughter of Walter L. Miller, and Robert F. Hooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoover, all of Hastings, took their nuptial vows. Rev. Father Aurelius Labuda officiated and sang the nuptial high mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attendants were Miss Ann Miller, sister of the bride, and William Hoover, brother of the bridegroom.

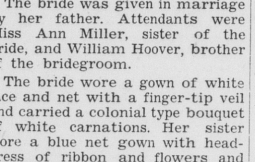

The bride wore a gown of white lace and net with a finger-tip veil and carried a colonial type bouquet of white carnations. Her sister wore a blue net gown with head-dress of ribbon and flowers and carried pink carnations.

A dinner was served to immediate families at the home of the bride's father, followed by a reception in the evening. After a short honeymoon, the couple will reside in Hastings.

MOTHER LOVE OUTWEIGHS APPETITE

WHEN A LONDON, ENGLAND, HOUSEWIFE, Mrs. Pamela Bates placed three little chicks in a basket in front of the fireplace, she failed to give any thought to the house cat "Squibs." These pictures show that Mrs. Bates needn't worry, for maternal instinct outweighed the cat's taste for poultry. "Squibs" carries one of the chicks (top) in her mouth. At bottom, the cat joins her adopted family in basket. (International)
