

CRESSONER KILLED WHEN HIT BY CAR

Cloyd Thomas Cresson, 68, of Cresson was killed almost instantly about 11:20 a. m. Saturday and his companion, Edward Zerbe, 69, Gallitzin, seriously injured when they were struck by a car along the four-lane highway on the west side of the Cresson Mountain.

Police said the men were struck by a car operated by Clair Smith, 25, Roaring Springs, who told them he was traveling down the steep grade when a car operated by Rev. Father Francis Pilz, 67, Gallitzin, turned across the highway in front of him. He declared he swerved his vehicle sharply to avoid colliding with the car and struck the pedestrians.

An inquest will be held as soon as Mr. Zerbe is sufficiently recovered to testify.

SOISSON TO SHOOT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Fred Soisson, crack marksman of Hastings, will give a demonstration with rifles and shotguns at 3 p. m. Sunday at the Hastings Athletic Field.

The event is being sponsored by the Hastings Moose. A mortgage-burning ceremony is scheduled at 6 p. m. and a dance at 8 o'clock. Michael Rubus, lodge governor, and Eugene Endler, secretary, are to be in charge of the affair.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE AT BRADLEY JUNCTION

Flames completely destroyed a frame dwelling owned by Herman Illig near Bradley Junction Tuesday afternoon. The fire broke out about 3 p. m. and the Carrolltown Fire Co. was called immediately. However, the structure was a mass of flames before they could traverse the distance. The building was unoccupied at the time, but extensive repairs had been made in preparation for the arrival of tenants. Firemen say they plan to investigate the cause of the flames.
