DEAN LOCALS

Wilbur Hollen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hollen of this place, was believed to be lost after going on a hunting trip and not returning that night. However, he showed up the following morning after having visited overnight with an uncle, Henry Swires, who is in the Navy, was home on a week's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swires. The sailor has been in the service for 10 months and expects to make it a lifetime career.

Mrs. Virginia Dow of Dean was visited by the stork Dec. 12. He left her a set of twins—one a girl and the other a boy. The girl weighed four pounds, 14 ounces, and was named Mary Lee. The little boy weighed an even five pounds and is named Paul Lee. Mother and children are doing nicely. Mrs. Dow also has three other children, John, 8; Carol, 4; and Brian Joseph, 1 1/2.

DEER SEASON HERE SAID NOT TOO GOOD

With the deer hunting season closed, it seems to have proved very unsuccessful for our local nimrods, many of whom have scoured the wooded sections in the immediate vicinity without any appreciable results.

BETTER DO YOUR CHRISTMAS CALLING EARLY

Christmas is always a busy season—especially for out-of-town telephone calls. This year it will be busier than ever. There are bound to be delays on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The wires will get so crowded that some calls (particularly to distant points) won't get through at all. You'll be wise to start your "Christmas calling" early.

ST. BENEDICT ITEMS

Deer hunters from this place all are back home again. Some bagged deer and some did not. Included among those who felled bucks were Mike Kohan, who got a three-pointer, a nine-point and four-point buck were killed by two other local hunters.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Taterus and sons of Shamokin visited last week end with Mr. and Mrs. John McCartney. Mrs. George Lamb is visiting her son, John, in New Jersey this week.
