HUSBANDS ATTEND LADIES' CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Anthony Fenello invited the husbands of the members of her pinocle club to accompany their wives on their regular club night to celebrate the birthday of Anthony Fenello. Prizes in pinocle were awarded to Yank Certo, Frank Pallone, Mrs. Frank Pallone, Mrs. Frances Pallone, Mrs. Sue Kutsar and Mrs. Charlotte Fenello. Lunch was served and nice gifts were received.

DELEGATION INTERVIEWS SHIRT FACTORY HEADS

E. George, Frank Sunseri and Domenic Certo were appointed as representatives of the Spangler Business Men's Association to visit the Glen Campbell J. and C. Shirt Factory last week. They met with representatives of the plant to obtain information concerning the construction of a factory in Spangler. If the plant is placed upon, plans will be made, at a meeting in the near future, for a temporary location until a permanent building can be erected.

NEW OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY CIVIC CLUB

At the regular meeting of the Civic Club of Spangler, which was held in the firemen's hall last Friday evening, a record attendance was reported. Plans were discussed on a site for the new factory, which is being anticipated.

Election of officers also took place with the following being chosen: Frank Sunseri replaced Vince Hammond as president; E. George replaced Frank Sunseri as Vice President; Dr. Sakon replaced Gordon Durbin as Secretary, and John Easley replaced Earl Lantzy, as treasurer. Francis "Chick" Falls was elected publicity chairman. The outgoing officers are commended for their excellent work during the past year.

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Butterbaugh and daughter, Peggy, of Clymer, were Sunday guests at the Martin Fry home.

Edward Conroy of Detroit, Mich. and a former resident of Spangler, died on Monday, Dec. 9. He was a brother of Mrs. John Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gray and children, Jimmy, Tommy and Jack were guests at a dinner to celebrate the third birthday of Earl Parrish at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Parrish.

Paul Kirsch, Earl Lantzy, Max Kirsch, Charley Glasser, Carl Lantzy and Eddie Kirkpatrick were on a hunting trip Saturday. Paul Kirsch was the only one of the group who killed a deer.

The following served on the jury at Ebsensburg last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday: Mrs. Paul Lantzy, Mrs. Martin Kirsch, Max Gordon and Mrs. Clara Caldwell.

Robert Callahan and his cousin,
