Invites All Veterans TO JOIN THE

Every Veteran of World War I or II should join The American Legion, apart from the fact that one of life's greatest compensations for service to his County lies in the pleasant association with those who shared that servce with him.

10 REASONS WHY EVERY VETERAN SHOULD JOIN THE AMERICAN LEGION

PEACE TIME SERVICE—The blue and gold button of The American Legion testifies honorable service to for God and Country in War, and service to community, state and nation in time of peace.
 REHABILITATION—Every membership helps toward the attainment of the objective of adequate care and protection by the government of every disabled exservice-man of World War I or II and his dependents.
 CHILD WELFARE—Every enrollment helps to carry out the great child welfare program which the Legion is sponsoring, and in which the Legion stands in the place of father and husband to scores of thousands of needy orphans and widows.
 A AMERICANISM—By belonging to the Legion, the of father and husband to scores of thousands of heads orphans and widows. 4 AMERICANISM—By belonging to the Legion, the veterans back the greatest principles of Americanism, combat un-American influences, support patriotic educa-tion among the children and citizens at large, and help to make all communities better places in which to live. 5 JUNIOR EDUCATION—Through the Legion the vet-eran will help to teach sportsmanship and higher ideals to the youth of America by means of the Junior Baseball Program. Sons of the American Legion, Boys State, Boy Scout oratorical contests and School Medal Award Programs. 4 ANTIONAL DEFENSE—Every membership will help tional defense to insure this country against attack, and thus against another war.

T LEGISLATION—Practically every piece of legislation beneficial to exservicemen of World War I or II has found The American Legion right behind it. The success of the entire legislative program of the Legion depends upon early and complete enrollment.
8 NON-PARTISANSHIP—By joining The American Egion the veteran becomes a member of the most democratic organization in the world. No rank in the Legion the veteran becomes a member of the most democratic organization in the world. No rank in the service during World War I or II are the only requirements.
9 COMRADESHIP—The veteran enrolling in the Legion is up with a real outfit of he-men who served side-by-side with him, through thick and thin, whether he was a millionaire or not. Friendships made on the battlefield and in the service endure. Friendships made in the American Legion likewise endure.
10 ORGANIZATION—Individually the exservicemen than 1,200,000 members, the veterans can accomplish the things that are worthy.
