Veteran Horsemen Given Feed Sunday

Twenty-five veteran horsemen Sunday inspected livestock at the County Home and the County Home Farm. The tour of inspection followed a dinner in honor of the oldtime horsemen given in Metropolitan Hotel, Ebensburg, by Cambria Co. Commissioner Cyrus W. Davis.

Members of the group said the stock at the county home was exceptionally well cared for and the three teams of Belgian work horses were in excellent condition. The teams were hooked up and paraded for the benefit of the visitors.

At the juvenile home the men were shown the three baby beef calves being raised by three boys as a 4-H club project.

The group also inspected a 45-acre tract owned by the county along the Ebensburg-Summerhill Road. The visitors said they will endeavor to interest several groups in establishing a park on the site.

Mrs. Jennie Verdavoir, Hastings, Passes Away

Mrs. Jennie Verdavoir, 61, of Hastings died at 3 p. m. Sunday at the Miners' Hospital. Born on Oct. 7, 1885, in France, she was a daughter of Frank and Virginia (Gulaw) Legross, both deceased.

Surviving are her husband, Paul, and 3 children, Leona, at home; Paul Jr., with the Army in Hawaii, and Lucine, Hastings. There also are these brothers and sisters: Joseph, Patton; Alex, Maurice, Mrs. Melma Deschamps and Victor, all of Hastings; Noel, St. Benedict; Mrs. June Goss, Johnstown; Mrs. Blair Weakland, Williamsport; Mrs. Ernest Mehay, St. Lawrence, and Mrs. Martha Lechene, Patton.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. (EST) this Thursday in St. Bernard's Catholic Church at Hastings, with burial in the St. Bernard Cemetery.

Rabbit Bite Causes Loss of Tot's Finger

Thomas Smith, the 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shick of Carrolltown, had his finger amputated at the second joint recently as the result of an unusual accident whereby he was bitten by his parents' pet rabbit and so badly mangled his finger that Dr. V. J. Mulvihill was obliged to remove it.

Prior to this and unknown to the Smiths, Patsy Stevens, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Stevens of Carrolltown, was bitten by the same rabbit. The bunny took off the tip of her right index finger. Both tots were feeding the rabbits at the times they were bitten.

The Carrolltown physician says these two cases were the first he had ever treated for rabbit bites since he began practice about 50 years ago.

All of the Smiths rabbits now are in "bunny heaven."

Elizabeth M. Cronauer, Hastings, Bride Monday at Hastings

St. Bernard's Catholic Church, Hastings, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday when Rev. Father Raymond Balko, the pastor, officiated at a ceremony uniting Miss Elizabeth M. Cronauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Cronauer of Hastings, and George E. Jr., son of George Finet Sr., Hastings. The nuptial mass was at 8 a. m.

The bride was attended by her sister, Regina, who served as maid of honor, and Gertrude, the bridesmaid. Robert Finet served as his brother's best man and I. J. Cronauer was usher.

A reception was held in the church hall. Both are graduates of Hastings High, and the groom served in the armed forces during World War II. They will reside in Hastings.

The bride carried a prayerbook used by her maternal grandmother in 1897 and by her mother in 1923.

Thelma M. Sullivan, Colver, Bride Thursday at Colver

Holy Family Catholic Church, Colver, was the scene of a lovely wedding last Thursday at 9 a. m. when Miss Thelma Sullivan, daughter of Daniel J. Sullivan, exchanged vows with Walter C. Craver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin J. Craver of Cresson.

Rev. Father John J. Gura officiated at the double-ring ceremony the nuptial high mass which followed.

Philip Strittmatter Named Ebensburg K. of C. Head

Philip Strittmatter was named grand knight of Ebensburg Council 522, Knights of Columbus, at a meeting last Thursday in the organization's home. Other officers chosen were:

Alton McDonald, deputy grand knight; J. Lawrence Luther, chancellor; E. Peduzzi, warden; Geo. Harvey, treasurer; Clair Bearer, financial secretary; Wilfred Huber, recording secretary; Bernard Fe### lix, inside guard; Joseph Plummer, outside guard; C. Randolph Myers, advocate; and J. Deasy McGough, Andrew Westrick and Anthony Kline, trustees.

Elmer Luther, Carrolltown, delegate to the recent state convention in Bethlehem, gave a report.
