Miss Rose Milkovich Is Bride Here Saturday

Miss Rose Milkovich and Mike Juba were united in marriage at a beautiful double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. John Levkovich in the Holy Ascension Greek Catholic Church on Saturday of last week, June 28.

Miss Mary Juba served as maid of honor and Mrs. Victoria Milkovich was matron of honor. Pete Stefanchick served as best man.

The bride was attired in a white gown with long train and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet-peas. The matron of honor wore a pink net gown with matching headpiece and a corsage of red roses. Miss Juba wore a blue satin gown with matching headpiece and carried red roses.

Margaret Walvo, Mary Kozickie, Carolyn Prokup, Margaret Yanoski and Helen Juba served as bridesmaids and were attired in blue, rose, yellow and pink taffeta and net or satin gowns with matching headpieces and corsages. Nick Juba, Arthur Cannon, Harry Juba, George Siskio and George and John Milkovich were ushers.

After the ceremony, the bridal party, pictures were taken in Cresson, and the bridal bouquet was caught by Mary Kozickie. A dance and reception also were held.

The couple will reside in Colver, where the groom, a World War II veteran, is employed by the Ebensburg Coal Co.
