AIR POWER IS PEACE POWER

HELP BUILD AMERICA'S AIR POWER on AIR FORCE DAY, AUGUST 1ST

No one today questions the fact that the whole future of the United States may rest in the very clouds over your head.

You may, for example, enlist in the Air Forces for three years.

If you have had Air Forces experience, you may join the Air Reserve and continue your military aviation training outside of business hours.

On Air Force Day, make a point of finding out everything about your Air Forces — especially the new Aviation Career Plan described below.

NOW—THE WORLD'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR A CAREER IN AVIATION

Today the Army Air Forces offer high school graduates an unprecedented opportunity to get the finest aviation schooling on earth — and select your school or course before you enlist.

The AAF Career Plan is unlike anything ever offered before. It permits selected high school graduates to apply and qualify for AAF specialized courses of their own choice.

When you are selected to attend the course of your choice, you enlist in the Army Air Forces for 3, 4 or 5 years.

Get a list of all the schools and courses open to you under the AAF Aviation Career Plan at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.
