Band Concert Halted by Shower

The joint concert of the Carrolltown and Ebensburg summer bands, originally scheduled Sunday evening, July 27, was halted by rain last Wednesday evening only a short time after it had begun. The concert was given in the Carrolltown Stadium.

The 11-piece group staged another concert on Thursday evening of last week, this one on the lawn in front of the Ebensburg Courthouse.

The combined band was directed by Joseph Boes, Carrolltown High School music director, and William S. Smathers, music director of Ebensburg-Cambria High.

DO YOU KNOW? William Henry Betty was quite a prodigy, appearing on the London stage in the heaviest of the Shakespearean parts when but 11 years old. He was so popular that the House of Commons adjourned to see his performance of Hamlet.
