Miss Marjorie Westrick Bride of Hastings Man

St. Benedict's Catholic Church was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony at 9 a. m. Saturday when Miss Marjorie Westrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Westrick of Carrolltown, became the bride of Adrian Semelsberger, son of Mrs. Helena Semelsberger of Hastings. Rev. Father Flavian Yelinko, OSB, the pastor, officiated at the double-ring service. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Maurita Westrick, her sister, as maid of honor, and Miss Patricia Strittmatter, her cousin, bridesmaid. Thomas Semelsberger, brother of the groom, was best man, while Donald Quinn, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer. Ushers were Stephen Easley, Robert Bearer, D. A. Westover Jr. and James McNelis. Mrs. M. D. Connell presided at the organ. Don Connell sang the "Ave Maria" at the Offertory and Dick Connell sang the recessional, "On This Day."

The bride chose for her wedding a colonial style gown of white marquisette with full skirt and train bordered by a ruffle. Her fitted bodice had a high neckline. She wore long marquisette mitts painted at the wrist and carried a white colonial bouquet of asters, roses and gardenias. She also wore a French veil fastened with pearl flowers. The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore identical blue dresses of net and lace, fashioned in colonial style. Both carried mixed garden bouquets. A wedding dinner was served at noon at the Bearer Hotel and a reception at the Westrick residence followed. Upon their return from a northern honeymoon trip, the newlyweds will reside in Hastings, where the groom, a World War II veteran, is employed by the First National Bank. Mrs. Semelsberger is dietitian at the Miners' Hospital, Spangler.

State's Peach Crop Remains About Same

Pennsylvania's estimated 2,000,000-bushel peach crop is about the same as last year, but for the country as a whole the crop will be two percent above that of 1946 and will set a new all-time high mark, according to economists of Penn State College.

Peak shipments, they indicate, may be a little later than usual.
