Spangler High Football Card Shows Lone Daylight Game

To Dedicate Stadium During Richland Game

Spangler High School opened its 1947 football practice sessions during the past week at the new Spangler Stadium. This year, the team will be directed by Ted Keenan, who was co-coach with Hugo Vivadelli last year. Mr. Vivadelli is the principal of the Spangler High School and will not coach this year. Paul Artley, a graduate of Dickinson College, is the new assistant coach.

Coach Keenan has only one regular returning from last year's team—Tony Taranto, a guard. Returning lettermen include Paul Kline, Frank Kowardy, tackles; Louis Fowler and Joe Mucurio, backs. A squad of 50 hopefuls were on hand for the first work-out last Monday.

Spangler faces a tough 10-game schedule. Opening with the Carrolltown eleven on Friday of next week, Sept. 5, at the Carrolltown Stadium, and closing with Barnesboro on Armistice Day.

Spangler will play seven home games in their new stadium, dedicating the stadium with a home opener on Saturday night, Sept. 13, with Richland Twp. High.

The complete schedule follows: Sept. 5—At Carrolltown* Sept. 12—Cherry Tree* Sept. 19—Hastings* Sept. 26—Portage Twp.* Oct. 3—Gallitzin* Oct. 10—Nanty-Glo Oct. 17—Patton* Oct. 24—Nanty-Glo* Nov. 1—At Barnesboro* *—Night games.

The College All-Stars defeated the champions of the National Football League, the Chicago Bears, 16-0, in a surprising upset before 105,850 fans in Chicago's Soldier Field last Friday night.

Coach Huck Cicero's Squad To Play Opener Next Week

54 Boys Turn Out To Vie For Positions

A total of 54 boys from Carrolltown High School turned out for football practice during the past week in an effort to aid the Mountaineers better their 5-win, 4-loss record of last year.

Coach Mario (Huck) Cicero is in charge of training the squad. A number of lettermen are back on the roster.

All home games will be played on Friday nights. The schedule is as follows: Sept. 5—Spangler, home. Sept. 12—Cherry Tree, home. Sept. 19—Hastings, home. Sept. 26—Portage Twp., home. Oct. 3—Patton, away. Oct. 10—Nanty-Glo. Oct. 17—Southmont. Oct. 24—Altoona J. V., away. Oct. 31—Barnesboro, home.

Dysart Completes Plans For Jamestown Game

All plans have been completed for the baseball game between the Dysart All Stars and the Jamestown (N. Y.) nine, winners of the New York State Tournament, according to word received from George Mansfield, the Dysart manager.

The game will be played on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. (DST) sharp. The Dysart nine also has secured the services of the Cresson High School Band to provide music for the afternoon.

Barnesboro High Schedule Released

A nine-game schedule has been arranged for the Barnesboro High School Football team, according to the slate announced by A. J. Nastasi, faculty manager.

The club will open its season with Heilwood Sept. 5. Games with Indiana and Carrolltown will be played away from home while all the other games will be at the home field. Head coach George Magulick is being aided by Dan Miller in grooming the squad for the initial tilt.

A slate of eight games has been booked for the junior varsity elevens. A game is being sought for the juniors to fill an open date Oct. 1.

The schedule follows: Varsity Sept. 5—Heilwood. Sept. 12—Opener. Sept. 19—At Indiana. Sept. 26—Portage. Oct. 3—Nanty-Glo. Oct. 10—Bedford. Oct. 17—Ebensburg. Oct. 24—Cherry Tree. Oct. 31—At Carrolltown. Nov. 11—Spangler.

Westover Opener Scheduled Sept. 19

Westover High will bump up against some stiff competition in its 1947 grid schedule, as shown by a recently-released 7-game football schedule. The team is directed by the school's science and math teacher, Mr. Williams.
