A Spangler brother and sister, Donna Byrnes, seven, and Gene Byrnes, five, were injured last Wednesday afternoon when they were struck by a truck driven by John Karol, St. Benedict, as they were crossing the road after leaving a school bus bringing them to school.

Mr. Karol said he did not see the children until it was too late to stop the truck. He said he was driving on the highway and they darted directly into the path of his truck.

Very Rev. Adrian J. M. Veigle, TOR, president of St. Francis, announced that the centennial mass will be held the morning of the Alumni-Civic Day celebration.

Meeting of Miners Postponed 1 Week

A meeting scheduled to be held last Sunday in the Clymer Union Hall by "protesting miners" of District 2, was postponed until the first of October.

Leaders in the "protest" campaign said the meeting was postponed to allow delegates to attend a convention of the Union Label League at Lancaster over the week end.

The members of the Barnesboro Businessmen's Assn. are leading the move to further interest the firm in establishing at Barnesboro.

The site has been viewed by the truck body company representatives, who said it appeared adequate but that better water supply would have to be provided.

The building is about 90 feet long and 50 feet wide.

100 More Ringnecks Are Freed in Area

Pennsylvania Game Commission has set free approximately 100 ringneck pheasants for this hunting season.

Also a speaker was John J. Daugherty of the Johnstown Office of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, who urged miners to take more interest in safety groups and to practice every precaution while at work.

James Mark, president of District 2, United Mine Workers of America, which takes in all of this district, voiced objections to new taxes on coal production under recent legislation passed at Harrisburg to a meeting of coal producers and the Lawrence Twp. School Board at Clearfield last Thursday.

Mr. Mark told the group that the United Mine Workers consider the tax discriminatory. He said taxed coal in this state must compete with untaxed coal from West Virginia and that he feared the effect it would have on miners' wages.

Railroad Passenger Service In District to Be Discontinued

Railroad passenger service into Patton will be discontinued Oct. 5, 1947, according to an announcement by the Pennsylvania Railroad. It's discontinuance has the approval of the Public Utility Commission.

The Cresson and Idamar RPO trains 6674 and 6677 and the Cresson and Patton 6604 all will be withdrawn from service. This discontinuance also will end the delivery of parcel mail to be handled by truck between Patton and Barnesboro and other towns in North Cambria not now served by star routes.

After Oct. 4, such parcel mail will be handled by truck between Altoona and Barnesboro, the route running through Patton.

The Railway Mail Service is accepting bids for the new route at their offices in Pittsburgh up until 9 a. m. Monday, Sept. 29. Forms for submitting bids may be secured from your local postoffice.

Both morning and evening trips have been made daily between Barnesboro and Cresson and Patton and Cresson, and as of late years only a combination passenger and mail coach had been serving the "run."

Sold 378 Tickets in One Day

A few years back the railroad was the chief means of transportation and an average of 200 tickets were sold at the Patton Railroad Station daily. This has dwindled down in recent years to one or two passengers a month.

R. V. Dunbar, who has been employed at the Patton PRR Station since 1906, recalls selling 378 tickets on Labor Day, 1907. Mr. Dunbar says that 500 and 800 tickets usually were sold for Sunday excursions to the Phillipsburg-Osceola Mills district.

Furniture Factory May Be Established In Hastings Boro

Hastings residents are making plans for a fund-raising drive in order to induce a furniture manufacturing concern to establish a plant in that community.

The proposed company would employ about 60 men at the start, with expectations being that as time went on about 250 might be employed.

Residents of the community are planning to finance the coming of the factory by selling stock at $25 per share. They expect that it will take about $20,000 to obtain the equipment for the concern.

Plans call for the forming of an incorporated organization prior to the date the stock will be offered for sale. Three different buildings in the town now are under consideration as proposed sites for the proposed plant.

A seven-man committee composed of Elmer Rott, James McNeil, Henry Collins, Anthony Fazio, and Paul Easley, all of the Hastings Community Improvement Commission, has been named to contact building owners. It is thought that any one of the three sites in mind could easily be adapted to the proposed factory.

Under the present set-up, the stockholders would own all of the equipment and materials and a manager would be hired to operate the plant.

Patton Clay Mine Output Increased By Electrification

Coal and clay output at No. 1 Mine of Patton Clay Manufacturing Co. Patton, has increased approximately 25 per cent since the mine was modernized early this year.

William Nelson, foreman of the operation, said conditions at the mine have improved greatly and the only holdback to further production is a shortage of mine cars for use in hauling coal from the mine.

Prior to beginning the modernization program in Oct., 1946, coal and clay products were mined by hand and transported by mule haulage.

With the installation of mine machinery and electric locomotive production has increased to nearly 300 tons of coal and clay each day.

Plans call for a new drift mouth at the mine within the next three months. Excavation for the work already has been started. An up-to-date ventilating system also is being installed.

Most old-time hunters do not need these tips to avoid mishaps. Wear your target carefully. But some do. Here are the tips:

1. Carry your gun pointed toward the ground and on safety. See your target clearly before pulling the trigger.

2. Break branches of guns before climbing fences. Hand them across to a companion. Don't lay down on the ground or poke it through a fence. Check the barrel for snow or mud before firing.

3. Wear a bright coat—preferably red—in the woods. Never wear white. Never stand up to shoot from a boat. Don't shoot at rock or water surface.

4. Never carry loaded guns in your car and don't mix horseplay with hunting. Drinking and hunting don't mix either.

Frost Kills Garden Produce Tuesday

Northern Cambria residents bid farewell to summer Tuesday as this week's early morning frosts did damage to most vegetable gardens in this area.

Tomatoes not already caught by the "blight" suffered the majority of their damage, but corn damage was slight.

Tuesday and Wednesday saw most of the farmers in this section busily putting away ensilage away for the long winter months to come.

Temperatures in some areas fell lower than 27 degrees.

DST Ending Will Be This Week End

The end of the "what time?" question soon will be at hand! Residents of all Northern Cambria towns who have been observing Daylight Saving Time during the summer months, are reminded to turn their clocks back one hour before going to bed on Saturday night of this week.

Sunday morning at 2 o'clock brings the official end of Daylight Saving Time in most of the Nation.

However, in Patton, in order to avoid confusion as to the time of church services and other functions this coming Sunday, Burgess Robert Forsythe, in a proclamation printed elsewhere, has proclaimed the end of Daylight Saving Time in Patton Boro only at 2 a. m. Monday morning—24 hours later.

The church clock in Carrolltown will be turned back at 2 a. m. Sunday, and services Sunday again will be on Standard Time.
