Solemn Novena At Loretto Carmel Will End Oct. 3

The Carmelite Monastery in Loretto, Pa. A Solemn High Mass will be sung at 7 a. m. by the Franciscan Fathers of Loretto, champions of the monastery. There will be two novena services that day, one at 4 p. m. and another at 8 p. m. These will be the closing exercises of the novena. The Papal Blessing will be given for all who have made the novena or triduum. At both services will take place the beautiful ceremony of the blessing of the roses in honor of the "Little Flower." Roses then will be distributed to all present. The Carmelite Nuns will greatly appreciate any donations of roses for this day, either to be used for the decorations or for the blessing. They will be accepted for the intentions of their donors. —Read comics in the "Courier"
