Co. Legion Ladies Indorse UMT Plan At Recent Conflab

Demands for compulsory military training were made by members of Cambria Co. Council, American Legion Auxiliary, at a meeting last Thursday in Oriental Ballroom, Gallitzin.

Another feature of the meeting was the appointment of standing committee chairmen for the coming year by Mrs. C. O. Dimond, South Fork, newly elected council president.

Approximately 110 delegates from 14 of the 16 auxiliary units in the county pledged to call on Congressman Harve Tibbott in an effort to have him take action toward establishment of universal military training.

Great need for early enactment of legislation to call young men to the armed forces for at least one year was stressed by Mrs. Francis Gerber, Summit Hill, the state auxiliary president.

The state official declared the country must maintain part of its military might as protection against any aggression. She also declared that young boys also should have the experience of military training in the event they are called upon to protect the nation.

In her address, Mrs. Gerber asserted that newspapers and radio stations of the nation should suppress any talk of Communism. The word and any reference to its meaning should be abolished from public print and the airlines of America, she emphasized.

This year's state Legion auxiliary project will be the erection of a covered grandstand at the athletic field at Coatesville Veterans Hospital. Mrs. Gerber announced that the Keystone Girls' Camp will be conducted again this year and each of the 200 units in the state will have the privilege of sending one representative to the camp.

Mrs. Daniel A. Krumberger, State College, state auxiliary membership chairman, announced Cambria County Council's membership quota for 1948 at 2,914, which is ten per cent above that of last year.

Guest speakers at the luncheon were J. F. Bernard, Dr. A. M. Bergstein and W. Howard Weston of Gallitzin. Officers were installed from units in Blandburg, Patton and Cresson.

Mrs. George Belsinger, South Fork, presented a personal award to the Barnesboro unit for making the largest contribution to the project for erection of a memorial amphitheater at Aspinwall General Hospital. A personal award was made by Mrs. Bess Sheehan, Patton, to Blandburg unit for raising the greatest percentage of members over the 1947 quota.

Committee chairmen from the north of the county included in those named by Mrs. Dimond, are: Mrs. Clara Bostrum, Barnesboro, legislation; Mrs. J. J. Sheehan, Patton, child welfare; Mrs. A. P. Strolo, Barnesboro, coupons; Mrs. John Whalen, Spangler, membership; Mrs. John Haluska, Patton, press and radio; Mrs. Thomas A. Owens, Carrolltown, publications; and Mrs. John Whalen, Spangler, constitution and by-laws.

Gallitzin R. D. Pair Married 64 Years

Harry Stevens' Observe Anniversary by Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevens of Gallitzin have been married a long time. This past Sunday they observed their 64th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at their home.

Harry Stevens and the former Elizabeth Hammond were married on Oct. 16, 1883, by Rev. Father Bush, at that time pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Loretto. Mrs. Stevens, a daughter of the late Adam and Annie Hammond, will be 81 on Nov. 29 while her husband will be 89 on Apr. 12 of next year.

Mr. Stevens is a retired farmer. Mrs. Stevens still does her own housework. Both are enjoying good health.

They are the parents of eleven children, nine of whom are still living—John Stevens and Mrs. Laura Shields, both of Cresson; Mrs. Edward Illig, Ebensburg; Leonard Stevens, Altoona; Walter, Ralph, and Leo Stevens, all of Gallitzin; Mrs. Perry Nash, Revloc, and George Stevens, at home.

There are 16 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Patricia Weakland Married Saturday

The St. Boniface Catholic Church was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony at 9 a. m. on Saturday, Oct. 18. Miss Patricia Weakland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weakland of St. Boniface, became the bride of William Lester Link, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Link of Hastings.

Rev. Father George Brugger, OSB, the pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony and sang the nuptial High Mass which followed.

The maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Weakland, sister of the bride, and best man was George Link, brother of the bridegroom.

A wedding dinner was served at the Weakland home, followed by a reception in the afternoon. The couple will make their home on Patton R. D.

St. Boniface Man Held

State Police from the Ebensburg detail on Saturday night arrested Joseph F. Collins, 22, of St. Boniface on charges that he was the driver of a car which failed to stop after it sideswiped another auto on Hastings between Patton and Hastings.

Police said that Collins admitted his car sideswiped one operated by Clifford B. Thomas of Patton. The wreck occurred at about 8:30 p. m. and the St. Boniface man was arrested about three hours later.

Collins posted a $1,000 bond at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Elizabeth Rowland in Ebensburg on Monday.

Co. Legion Ladies Indorse UMT Plan At Recent Conflab

Demands for compulsory military training were made by members of Cambria Co. Council, American Legion Auxiliary, at a meeting last Thursday in Oriental Ballroom, Gallitzin.

Another feature of the meeting was the appointment of standing committee chairmen for the coming year by Mrs. C.
