Chuck Taylor Stopped by Sugar Ray Robinson

Sugar Ray Robinson, working with cool confidence and precision scored a technical knockout over challenger Chuck Taylor of Coalport, at two minutes and seven seconds of the sixth round at Olympia Stadium, Detroit.

The outcome of Robinson's second welterweight title defense of the year was virtually assured from the fourth round on because the aggressive challenger was running into too many of Sugar Ray's deadly lefts and rights.

Taylor went down for a nine-count and as he staggered back to his feet his manager, Jack Laken, yelled to referee Johnny Weber to halt the slaughter. Weber ignored Laken's pleas and Robinson glided in toward Taylor's corner to finish the job. A stiff left and a swishing right hook did it, as Referee Weber stopped the fight after brushing away a towel that Laken attempted to hurl into the ring. The bout was billed for 15 rounds.

The Ebensburg floor last Monday evening. Cliff McWilliams was high scorer for the winners with 20 points followed by Link with 16. Gates with 13 and Diechert with 10 points led the offensive for Cresson.
