3 County Offices Enrich Treasury

The clerk of courts, recorder of deeds and prothonotary offices in Ebensburg netted the county a total of $97,677 for the county's bank account during 1947. The clerk of courts office netted $42,752.30, the recorder of deeds, $35,226.52, and the prothonotary's, $19,698.12.

The amount taken in by the clerk of courts' office was about $600 more than during 1946 and about $10,000 more than during 1945. A total of $34,133 was in fines and costs while the remainder was for restitution, miscellaneous fees and collections. There were 712 cases completed in the criminal court during the year.

Recorder of Deeds Clark Powell and fees in his office were approximately $15,000 less than in 1946, and this further reflected a slump in county real estate transactions. The 1947 total was about the same as the one for 1945.

In addition to fees turned over to the county treasury, the recorder's office also turned over $3,999.40 in taxes to the Commonwealth.
