Bakerton Boy Scouts
Have Enjoyable Outing

Boy Scout Troop No. 72, of Bakerton had a very interesting experience last week. Fifteen of the Scouts, led by their Scoutmaster, Tom Lehmer, hiked under full pack to St. Francis College, where they spent the afternoon in various sports about the campus, especially ice skating on the beautiful lake St. Francis. The boys slept in one of the class rooms on the campus. On the following morning, after being shown through the buildings by their Scoutmaster, who is a student at St. Francis, the Scouts started their long trek home, and covered more than thirty miles hiking in the snow. The most interesting event of the trip was an excursion through the famous Charles M. Schwab Mansion in Loretto, his former summer home, which now houses the St. Francis Seminary. The boys who went on the trip were: Jimmy Blase, Don Lachery, Larry Lehmer, Earl Evans, Pat Harris, Pat Lamont, Earl Faratto, Eddie Hovan, George Kotrick, Robert Boslett, Jack Bassett, Tom Yarko, Dick Pattison, and Joe Shevock. Upon arrival back in Bakerton, the boys were very tired, but also very happy. Boy Scouts.
