Elizabeth Grant Becomes Bride Of Naval Officer

A very impressive military wedding took place in the Trinity Methodist Church at 4 p. m. on Thursday, June 24, when Miss Elizabeth Grant, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Grant of Patton, became the bride of Lt. Harold Raymond Powell, U. S. N., of Philadelphia. The Rev. Albert C. Rorapaugh, pastor, officiated. The bride's parents were married on that same date 45 years ago.

Mrs. Wilfred Luther of Spangler, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Lt.-Comm. Tom Hamilton of Philadelphia, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Floyd Grant of Pittsburgh, brother of the bride, and Harold Hoover of Patton.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William Grant of Detroit, was lovely in a white marquisette gown and a large white picture hat. She carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers. The matron of honor wore a blue marquisette gown and a matching picture hat and carried a bouquet of blue and yellow flowers. The altar was banked with pink peonies and fern lit by candles. During the arrival of the guests, selections were sung by Miss Yvonne Yerger and Edward Donahue, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas McKee at the organ.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Wissinger's Inn, Ebensburg, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Eastern states. They will reside in Patton.

Miss Barbara Bloom Married Saturday

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church at 9 a. m. Saturday when Miss Barbara Bloom, daughter of G. G. Bloom of Patton, became the bride of Martin Bearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bearer of Hastings, N. S. pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony and sang the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Erma Bearer, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Miss Marilyn Rowland of Springfield, O., cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Best man was Edward J. Semblinger of Hastings. Francis Bloom, brother of the bride, served as usher.

The bride wore a white satin gown with long pointed sleeves and long train and finger-tip veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli and baby breath with white satin streamers. The maid of honor was attired in an aqua marquisette gown with hat to match and carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladioli with pink streamers. Miss Rowland was attired in an orchid marquisette gown with matching tulle hood and carried yellow gladioli with yellow streamers.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Bloom home, and a wedding dinner served to immediate relatives at Demento's Tea Room, Hastings. A reception was held from 2 to 5 at the Bearer home in Hastings.

Mrs. Bearer was employed at the A&P Store, Patton. Her husband, a World War II vet of 28 months' service with the Navy in the Pacific, operates a coal mine at Hastings.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will reside in Patton.
