

Nearly 200 Cases Are Disposed of in June Court Term

Thirty-three persons were sentenced to institutions and 153 paid costs, fines, or both, during the June term of criminal court in Cambria County.

It was the heaviest schedule for a June term in recent years. Clerk of Courts Joseph Wess said a total of 198 cases were disposed of.

A total of 144 persons pleaded guilty, 58 of them to failure to support a wife or family. Thirteen were convicted and 11 found not guilty after trial. Thirty cases were dismissed by the court.

In cases that went to trial, seven were acquitted by juries and four were freed by the court. The other trials ended in convictions—eight by juries and five by the court.

Of those sentenced to serve time, one was sent to state prison, 266 were committed to the county jail and six were sent to institutions for juvenile delinquents. A number of those who were ordered to pay fines and costs were placed on probation.

As indicated above, the non-support cases were most frequent. There were 63 of these. Theft of one kind or another, totaling 57, included on robbery case, 20 burglaries, 26 larcenies, nine embezzlement or fraud and one involving receipt of stolen goods.

There were two homicide cases, both of which went to trial. Leon W. Andrews, a Detroit truck driver was acquitted of involuntary manslaughter. He was the driver of a truck involved in the highway accident in which Leslie

O'Block of Turtle Creek was Injured Fatally

Blair F. Steele of Nanty Glo was convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the fatal shooting of his wife but has filed motion for a new trial.

A breakdown of other offenses follows: Aggravated assault, 12; rape; one; other sex offenses, 16; carrying deadly weapons, one; drunken driving, five; other motor code violations, nine; gambling law violations, 17; arson, two, and miscellaneous, 13.

Former Gallitzin Woman Killed at Pittsburgh

Mrs. Mary Ann Stanley, 78, formerly of Gallitzin, died last Sunday morning in Homestead Hospital the result of injuries suffered last Friday, in an automobile accident in Pittsburgh.

The Cambria Co. native had been visiting relatives and friends in Pittsburgh when she was injured about 30 years ago and since had resided in New York City.

A son Joseph P. Stanley, resides in Portage.

Control Leaf Hoppers

For control of leaf hoppers on beans, Henry Meusan, Penn State extension entomologist, suggests two applications of DDT dust, 2 or 3 percent, at 35 pounds per acre before blossoming. Apply preferably when the vines are dry.

Too often success is measured by money when it should be measured by accomplishments.

Spangler Legion Delegates Named

Members of Lynn Wetherston Post, No. 569, American Legion, Spangler, recently elected delegates to attend the state convention in Philadelphia in August.

Delegates are Paul R. Jones, R. V. Lantzy, Hugo Vivadelli, Michael Fye, and George Fisanich. Alternates are Daniel Leno, John Shank, Paul Pelles, Roman Pekulsky and William Paone.

Six new members were inducted during a meeting at the post home. This brings the total membership to 425. The unit voted to give 7100 to Johnstown corps, Salvation Army, for its building fund. Thirty-two members signed up as blood donors. The next gathering will be held Aug. 2.
