Gable's Observing 65th Anniversary

The William F. Gable Company of Altoona announces its 65th Anniversary sale beginning Mar. Ist and lasting through the 7th. A special effort is made during this sale to give Gable patrons values impossible at any other time, and, conquently, it is the greatest event of the year. Prices are slashed tremendously in all departments.

The citizens of Central Pennsylvania are invited to attend. Gable's will be closed all day Feb. 28 in preparation for the grand opening on Mar. 1. Store hours for the opening day, Mar. 1, are 9:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. Opening day will be a gala affair with free souvenirs given to all who register.

Anniversary sales were first started by William F. Gable, founder of the company, in 1894, 10 years after the store's opening. Since then anniversary sales have become nationwide events. Gable's annual anniversary celebration has become more than just another department store sale. It's something of a tradition in Altoona and surrounding areas—an event looked forward to from year to year with real enthusiasm.
