John E. Thompson Dies At Ebensburg

John Evan Thompson, burgess and justice of the peace in Ebensburg for 16 years, died last Friday morning at his home in Ebensburg.

He was appointed burgess and justice of the peace by Gov. Clifford Pinchot in 1932 and held the positions until his resignation last year.

Mr. Thompson was a member of one of Ebensburg's oldest families. His grandfather settled in Ebensburg in the early 1800's and his father, James Thompson, was a veteran of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War.

Mr. Thompson was a merchant in Ebensburg for many years, succeeding his father in the mercantile business in 1918. His wife, the former Mary E. McSorley of Summit, died in 1947.

Funeral services were held on Sunday at the Askew Funeral Home in Ebensburg by Rev. E. W. Roberts, pastor of the Ebensburg First Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in the Lloyd Cemetery.
