New Floor Finish Needs No Wax; blister and burst now that pressure-cooked dolomite limes are coming on the market. The hydrating process, which prevents later expansion and so will save many repair bills, was developed by the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

Norwalk, Conn., reports as new for the tops of convertibles, a combination of fiberglass and vinylite plastic material which will not stretch or shrink and which resists weathering. It can be washed just like the body of the car and will not mildew.

Chicago, Ill., says that a self-sealing waxed paper which sticks only to itself is for keeping sandwiches fresh and wrapping up things for the refrigerator. You use it as a bowl cover simply by pleating it into shape.

News from Muskegon, Mich., is that you can rent machines for shampooing your rugs at home just as you now rent sanding machines and floor polishers. This type of machine is available in Northern Cambria Co. now. You use a specially developed detergent with a coconut oil base in the shampoo machine. Another machine takes off the foam.

Buffalo, N. Y., claims that two coats of a new resin floor finish, applied to bare wood, and you never have to wax the floor. It's a refinement of the finish used in bowling alleys.

Triplets Boost Family Of 17 Children to 20 The George E. Chapman's of Bangor, Me., who had 17 children, now have 20 as the result of the birth of triplets—two girls and a boy. Chapman is 46, his wife is 36. The triplets have an older brother, sister—and 15 half-brothers and sisters. Chapman had 10 children and his wife five former spouses.

Bethesda, Md., warns parents on use of fluoride tablets to prevent tooth decay. Don't let children help themselves, and do follow the dentist's directions carefully. Just a slight overdose will mottle the enamel.

State to Study Rate For Fire Insurance

Harrisburg—Insurance Commissioner James F. Malone Jr. has announced he will conduct a broad investigation into the fire insurance rates being charged in Pennsylvania.

The investigation will be made to determine whether the rates being charged the public are excessive, adequate or unfairly discriminatory. Data will be compiled this summer and the evidence will be presented at a hearing before the commission some time in September.

The investigation and hearing will be the first of its kind to be held in Pennsylvania under authority vested in the insurance commissioner by the Fire & Casualty Rate Regulatory Law of 1947.

PRUNE FLOWERING SHRUBS As soon as early flowering shrubs are through blooming they should be pruned, reminds the ornamental horticulturist of the Pennsylvania State College. Spirea, mock orange, forsythia, weigela and others are in the group.

According to Newark, N. J., a new wrinkle in frying pans is one with a special valve through which grease can be drained without tilting the pan. The valve is released by a lever on the handle.
