KEEP YOUR KITCHEN

Cool and Clean with a wonderful new Electric RANGE. Your kitchen is cooler . . . and cleaner when your range is electric. It's cooler and cleaner because there's no flame to send heat shimmering about . . . nor fumes to streak walls and soil curtains. When you cook the flameless electric way, you use a measured amount of heat, just enough and no more, that goes right where it belongs . . . into the food you are cooking. And you, like millions of other women, will find the cooking results are wonderful. You need no longer serve your family skimpy hot-weather meals for there's a cool, clean way to serve delicious dinners—full of energy and done to a turn. And, of course, it's Electric. Before you buy, investigate all the advantages of the automatic electric range. There's a size and model for every home—for every pocketbook.
