Florence Adams Weds Joseph Nagle

In the presence of a host of friends and relatives, Miss Florence Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Adams, and Joseph F. Nagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Nagle, all of this place, were united in marriage on Saturday morning, Sept. 2, at 9 a. m. in the St. Augustine Catholic Church. Rev. Father Edward J. Waters, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony and sang the nuptial high Mass. Bernard Adams, brother of the bride, and William Shingle, nephew of the bridegroom, served at the altar, which was very beautifully decorated with gladioli. The bride's gown was of white satin with a long train and lace-trimmed veil held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with streamers of pompons and a corsage of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Frances Adams, sister of the bride, wore a gown of seafoam green taffeta with beaded and yellow roses. Robert Nagle, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Fred Adams, brother of the bride, and Gerald Nagle, brother of the bridegroom. Flower girls were Nancy Adams and Sharon Shingle, who were dressed in gowns of pink and gold taffeta, respectively, and carried colonial bouquets. A wedding dinner was served for the two families at the Adams home and a reception was held in the evening. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip, the newlyweds will take up housekeeping in Johnstown, where Mr. Nagle is employed by Sterling Office Supply Co.

Miss Joan Gibbons Bride At Recent Ceremony

Miss Joan Gibbons and Herman Krug were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Father J. B. Hackett on Saturday, Aug. 26, at 9 a. m. in St. Thomas' Catholic Church here. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Walter Gibbons. Attendants were Miss Theresa Krug, sister of the groom; Mrs. Jean Hoover, sister of the bride, and Misses Mary K. Smith and Dolly Balest. Best man was Douglass Krug, brother of the groom, and ushers were Francis Krug, brother of the groom, and Don Gibbons, the bride's brother. The bride wore a white satin gown and finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a blue marquisette gown and carried yellow roses, while the bridesmaids wore gowns of pink and yellow marquisette and matching headbands and carried yellow roses. A breakfast was served at the Krug home and dinner at the Ferris Wheel, Ruckhorn. A reception was held in St. Thomas' Hall. Miss Sophie Hancherick, employed in Washington, visited her mother here the past two weeks. Mrs. Lawrence Beers of Washington, D. C., visited the Dewey Beers home here over the week end. Forty Hours Devotion was held in St. Thomas' Church from 10 a. m. Sunday until 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday. A square dance will be held on Thursday evening, Sept. 7 at 9 p. m. in the St. Thomas Church Hall under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the local VFW. Our deepest sympathy is expressed to the relatives and friends of Mrs. Edna Donahue, who died on Sunday morning. Banns of matrimony were published on Sunday in St. Thomas' Church for Robert Bassal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bassal, and Miss Jean Baird of Altoona. Jimmy Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, is a patient in the Altoona Mercy Hospital. The following girls attended the 4-H Club Round-up in South Park on Aug. 25: Beverly Lidwell, Patricia Holt, Verma Eyer, Dorothy Eyer, Shirley Conrad, Elaine Brannigan, Joan and Carol Holterm, Shirley Suckmoa, Bertha
