Myers Calls For Democratic Victory In Talk At Gallitzin

Scores 'Threats' Made In State's 2 Big Cities

U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers, Democratic candidate for reelection, Sunday night called for a smashing Democratic victory in November when he denounced Governor Duff without mentioning his name.

At the same time, District Attorney Samuel R. DiFrancesco, who served as the toastmaster, said the campaign issue in Cambria County was whether or not the Gleason machine will rule.

Sen. Myers was the principal speaker before 1,700 people who jammed the Oriental Ballroom in Gallitzin to attend the annual $10 Democratic dinner.

"I have offered to discuss the issues of the campaign from the same platform as my opponent, the Governor of Pennsylvania," Senator Myers said, "but he has refused to do so."

Sen. Myers said he would have Richardson Dilworth take the same platform with his Republican opponent to discuss issues. And here, again, the offer was refused.

"In fact of fact, an offer of $25,000 was made to be donated to a charity if the Governor of Pennsylvania would discuss the issues of the campaign from the same platform as myself. Again the offer was refused," Sen. Myers said.

The senator pointed out that "it is only under Democratic administration that labor and all of the people have gone forward."

"In fact, the effect of the Taft-Hartley Act has not been fully felt," the senator said.

"But if the time ever comes when there are three men for every two jobs, then labor will realize what detriment this act really is."

Sen. Myers said Gov. Duff is "more reactionary than Sen. Taft and more of an isolationist than Sen. Wherry."

He also scored "the Governor of Pennsylvania for threatening citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County in order to obtain votes."

Sen. Myers said "the reason the Governor of Pennsylvania won the nomination for senator was because he had the best machine."

Mr. DiFrancesco attacked the Gleason machine as using "Communist procedure."

"I want to say that I am not imputing communism to Phil Taft and most of the directors of the Gleason machine," Mr. DiFrancesco said. "But I do emphatically charge that the Gleason leadership has adopted this campaign method and the strategy of communistic procedure."

"First of all, like the Communist Party, they have indeed attempted to infiltrate our meetings and gatherings with spies and sympathizers who report all our proceedings to their high command within less than 24 hours, after they occur."

"They have subsidized some of the so-called independent Democratic newspapers in this county in order to discredit by falsehoods and half-truths local leadership of the Democratic Party and its office-holders."

In his address, the district attorney, bringing out the real truth of the Gleason machine, said:

"However, the worst part of their desperate effort to win votes has been their brazen campaign to instill fear in the hearts and the minds of the people of Cambria County. Such methods are indeed deplorable. They are the methods of the Communists. Their campaign of fear and terror proceeded by means of a three-prong pincer attack."

"They have padded the highway payroll in this county in staggering numbers, and all these poor people, who are dependent on their employment with the highway department for a livelihood, have been given forceful orders that unless they kick in financially and produce politically, they are done."

"And last but not least, by their profligate domination and influence over the Liquor Control Board, they have threatened every licensee whether they hold a restaurant, hotel or club license, with reprisals if they dare to cooperate in any way with the Democratic Party. The glaring manifestation of this latter threat appeared in the newspapers upon the announcement of this dinner in honor of the senior senator of Pennsylvania, Francis J. Myers."

"Brazenly and publicly in the columns of the newspapers, they announced if licensees dared buy a ticket for this banquet, they would visit the rails of the Liquor Control Board on their establishments."

"This, of course, was sheer bluff. Nevertheless, it was effective; in scaring away a lot of poor timid souls who were otherwise have honored us with their presence and would have contributed to the greater success of this dinner."

"Yes, fear is the ace in the hole," Mr. DiFrancesco said.

The district attorney made an appeal to the supporters of Jay Cooke to vote the Democratic ticket.

Other speakers included Assemblyman Hiram G. Andrews, minority leader of the Assembly; Lewis Evans, candidate for Congress; Judge Michael J. Eagen, Lackawanna County candidate for Supreme Court; and County Democratic Chairman John R. Torquato. All Democratic candidates and county office holders were introduced.

...low cost electric power

yours to build with, to enjoy in Pennsylvania

Did you know that Pennsylvania exceeds all other states in the production of electric power for industrial use. Yet--the investor-owned electric power companies in the state are currently spending $300 to $400 million for increased facilities. Homes, farms, businesses and industries will all benefit from this gigantic expansion program. In the present critical times, it is vital to the nation's security.

Penelec's present expansion program will be completed in 1952 at a cost of more than $65,000,000. It will provide transmission and distribution lines and more than 175,000 kilowatts of additional generating capacity to better serve the customers in our area. Below are the major construction projects in this program.

Penelec progress milestones

- February 28, 1949, marked the completion of the Warren Station adding 69,000 kw to Penelec's total capacity.
- June 9, 1950, 51,000 kw is added to Penelec's generating capacity with the completion of an addition to Seward Station.
- July 2, 1950, Penelec-Metropolitan Edison interconnection placed in service. This links Penelec with 15 other utilities in a power pool.
- July 6, 1950, Ground is broken for addition to Front Street Station at Erie. This will add 63,250 kw.

It's your Pennsylvania, keep it growing

Out front with the finest yet priced with the lowest

These days you can't tell from the price tag how much quality a car holds. Ford, for example, is still priced with the lowest . . . yet in other respects it's in the fine class. Take its styling, for example for two years in a row Ford has been the recognized fashion leader.

Like America's finest cars Ford offers you a V-8 engine. No other low-priced car does. Nor does any other car of any price offer you a choice of V-8 or Six engines. And remember, Ford's V-8 costs hundreds less than most sixes--Ford's Six costs even less.
