Junior Garden Club Planned At Patton

An interesting talk on Socialized Medicine was given by Mrs. Edward McGovern at a regular meeting of the Patton Garden Study Club Tuesday night in the Moose Home. Pro and con were discussed on the subject.

Mrs. Harvey Winslow also gave a short address on juvenile delinquency pointing out that in Patton we do not need a cure but a prevention by having more outside supervised activities for the younger element.

Plans for a Junior Garden Club were discussed, which would take in all girls of high school age. Anyone interested is requested to contact Mrs. McGovern or Mrs. John Stevens for more information on the matter.

Navy Recruiter Visits Senior Boys

Wesley C. Mason, M.M.C., of the U. S. Navy interviewed senior boys of Patton High School on Thursday morning of last week. He also showed a film entitled "Trades in the Navy."

Throughout the interview, Chief Mason emphasized that the progress of a man in the service depends on his knowledge of the subjects in the high school curriculum and that a high school diploma is necessary to progress rapidly in the services. He said that the slogan of the Navy for 1950-51 is "Stay in School, and repeated: "Experience has taught the Navy that the greatness of our Nation has depended and will continue to depend on the men and women who make up the nation. Today, as never before, the education of these men and women, their ability to think clearly and wisely, will be a deciding factor in our nation's success or failure."

Margaret Fleming Pretty Bride Here

Miss Margaret Fleming, daughter of H. W. Fleming of Patton, became the bride of Michael Fedor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fedor Sr., at a pretty ceremony at 9 a. m. last Saturday, Jan. 27, in St. George's Catholic Church, Patton. Rev.
