Student Nurses Present Short Skit At Patton High

On Tuesday morning of this week two student nurses from the Miners' Hospital, Spangler, presented a skit in the Patton High School auditorium to all those high school girls interested in nursing.

Miss Mehal and Miss Stitt, the student nurses, presented a skit in which a letter by a student nurse to the Miners' Hospital was written to her cousin, Carole. The letter gave the entrance requirements for the Miners' Hospital, told of the privileges enjoyed, humorous situations that take place, and at the same time explained that study plays an important role in a student nurse's life, just as it does in any other field of work.
