Burgoon, quartermaster; Robert Edwards, judge advocate; Rev. Father Robert J. McCoy, chaplain; Dr. A. M. Bergstein, surgeon; and Donald Stock, James Munson and Louis Salvana, trustees.

Frank Lato Named By Ashville Fire Co.

Frank Lato was selected president of Ashville Volunteer Fire Co. during a meeting last night in Ashville School. He has held the post since the unit organized two years ago.

Other officers named were: Joseph Lippin, vice president; Dewey Beers, second vice president; James W. Lidwell, secretary; Charles Eason, treasurer; Warren Noel, fire chief; Roy Baker, foreman; Eugene Eyer, chief engineer; and Modestus Weiland a trustee for three years. Fire directors elected were Gilbert Cox, Russell Kelly, Joseph Sheehan, Albert McMullen and John Gauster.

Attorney Albert L. O'Connor of Lenoire spoke on firemen's relief associations. Plans for improving fire apparatus and to complete the fire hall will be made at a meeting on Mar. 14.

WNCC to Broadcast X-Ray Advantages

How a routine chest X-ray revealed trouble far more dangerous than the broken leg that sent a young boy to his community hospital is the subject of the fifth program in the "All Your Services" series of transmitted programs to be broadcast over radio station WNCC on Sunday, March 4, at 8:30 in the afternoon.

The program is presented weekly as a public service feature of Station WNCC and are sponsored by the Student Nurse Association of the Medical Center and the Medical Hospital of Northern Carolina, member of the American Hospital Association that produced the series.
