

Glasgow EUB Church to Be Rededicated This Sunday

Renovation Project Completed Recently

The pastor, Rev. Gene R. Sease, has announced the service of rededication to be as follows: Message, "Time of Refreshing," Rev. W. G. Hawk, superintendent of the Allegheny Conference; vocal solo, "Bless This House," George Eschbach of Tyrone; vocal and instrumental quartet, Altoona Baptist Church; greetings from former pastors, Rev. A. L. Barnett, Rev. M. S. Bittner, and others, and recognition of visiting friends and ministers.

The evening service, to begin at 7:30, will be featured by a concert by the Madras Male Chorus along with a message, "Leaving Home," by Rev. Hawk. Services Each Evening

Along with this day of rededication and homecoming, a service will be held each evening of the coming week, Apr. 1 to 6, with Rev. Hawk as speaker at these services; also, he has announced as his theme a series of messages on the life of the Prodigal Son.

The topics will be: "Life in the Far Country," "The Prodigal's Decision," "The Prodigal's Return," "The Prodigal's Father," and "They Joy of Home." Good singing and fellowship along with special music will be featured at these nightly meetings.

In preparation for this series of great events in the life of the Glasgow church, cottage prayer meetings are being held this week at 7:30 p. m. The first night the meeting was at the Charles Cree home, tonight it will be held at the John Schmittle home, and on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frye. Prayer, Bible study and singing are held at the meetings.

Rev. Sease invites the general public to share with Pleasant Hill Church in all of these activities, and assures a friendly welcome and enjoyable time to all.

A&P's "Low-Price, Low-Profit" Policy Gives You Bigger Values!

Because our net profit is so small... only a penny on each dollar... you get big values at your A&P. What's more, you get them all through the week and all through the store... thanks to A&P's policy of offering store-wide low prices on hundreds of items every day. And that's not all! You get the benefit of A&P's advertised prices no matter what day you shop. They're guaranteed for a full week, even though market prices go up. Want to see how this "Low-Price, Low-Profit" Policy can help you cut your weekly food bill? Note the prices that are plainly marked on all items... as well as on the shelves... at A&P! Take your pick of big values! Then compare your itemized cash register slip with what you usually spend. The difference will delight you!

All prices shown here (including those of items not subject to price ceilings) are guaranteed—Thursday, March 29th through Wed., April 4th.
